Beyond Innocence, Or, The Altersroman in Modern Fiction Linda A. Westervelt, 1997 In this groundbreaking work Linda A Westervelt defines an important yet previously unidentified and therefore unnamed type of novel the altersroman or age novel Fictions focusing on a protagonist s confrontation with mortality toward the end of middle age are likely to become ever more prominent in a Western world in which the average age of the population increases and more people reach late middle age and old age Working from a diverse sample of modern literature Westervelt analyzes the variety of responses to the life evaluation Some characters achieve a level of affirmation that allows renewal redirection or simply peace while others confront feelings of disgust or despair that so little time is left them Her altersromane are books about seeking wisdom though not everyone of this age becomes wise The use of the term altersroman highlights the fact that the altersroman is a classification comparable to but also clearly distinguishable from the bildungsroman wherein characters make the transition from youth to adulthood Westervelt contrasts her older protagonists characteristics with the equivalent characteristics in the bildungsroman through an examination of Don Quixote part 2 as well as six American novels The Ambassadors by Henry James The Professor s House by Willa Cather The Mansion by William Faulkner The Angle of Repose by Wallace Stegner A Book of Common Prayer by Joan Didion and Jazz by Toni Morrison These seven works though remarkably different share the common features of the altersroman Westervelt articulates the traits clearly rests them on the psychological literature and then shows in depth how the characteristics of the altersroman can enrich and more deeply inform our reading of a significant subset of modern literature that previously went unheralded Readers can use Westervelt s analysis to identify altersromane in literature other than their own and she begins this process by identifying exemplars written in other languages Beyond Innocence or the Altersroman in Modern Fiction introduces readers to the altersroman as a tool for classification and analysis and demonstrates the power and utility of that tool It offers a meaningful and enriching complement to the more established category of the bildungsroman

Nirmala,2010-01-16 Advaita and nondual teachings are about finding the Truth This Truth is not a dogma that you study it is the Truth about life the Truth about who you really are This Truth is discovered not learned It is discovered through sincerely inquiring Who am I What you discover is that who you are has nothing to do with self images or roles and everything to do with what you experience when you ask this question What you discover is that who you think of yourself as is just that a thought And beyond that thought is a great Mystery an experience of nothingness which is your true nature Nothing Personal leads you to the experience of your true nature and helps you explore its depth Through exposition questions and dialogues it brings you to a place of realization of the Truth you are that spacious Awareness in which everything appears including your thoughts and feelings Your thoughts and feelings do not define you but merely appear within Consciousness along with everything else This Consciousness is who you are Nothing Personal offers a gentle and persistent guide to seeing the underlying truth of your ultimate nature In this concisely edited collection of satsang talks and dialogues you are invited to honor the limitless love that is your true nature and to enjoy the sweet richness that is revealed when you give this Truth your undivided attention From the introduction Unlike most books this one is not meant to add to your knowledge or understanding It is about the Truth that cannot be spoken or written Although the Truth cannot be contained in this or any other book each word written here is intended to point you toward that Truth Many of the words and ideas may seem paradoxical or contradictory because what they point to is larger than our conceptual frameworks Many questions are asked which are not answered anywhere in the book Find out what the experience is like to ask yourself these questions even if they leave you emptier of knowledge and understanding In this emptying you just may discover what you are looking for The Truth is revealed when we allow ourselves to not know so I invite you to set aside all that you know for the time being and allow yourself to look with innocent eyes at what the words are attempting to unveil Take the time to experience the unspoken truth in each section before moving on to the next Resist the temptation to read these words with your mind which is likely to rush right past the Truth Allow the words to sink into your heart and reveal the truth of who you are
