Madsen,2003-08-20 This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory Focusing on American literature it examines how America s own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American Latino Black and Asian American writers They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada Central America and the Caribbean to Hawaii Indonesia and Vietnam It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism why for instance is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation
