Raymond, 2022-09-08 How has the place we live in changed developed and grown over the centuries That is the basic question local historians seek to answer The answer is to be found in the sources of information that previous generations have left us The records of parish county and diocesan administration of the courts of the national government and of private estates all have something to tell us about the history of the locality we are interested in So do old newspapers and other publications All of these sources are readily available but many have been little used Local historians come from a wide diversity of backgrounds But whether you are a student researching a dissertation a family historian interested in the wider background history of your family a teacher a librarian an archivist an academic or are merely interested in the history of your own area this book is for you If you want to research local history you need a detailed account of the myriad sources readily available This book provides a comprehensive overview of those sources and its guidance will enable you to explore and exploit their vast range It poses the questions which local historians ask and identifies the specific sources likely to answer those questions *Economic and Social History of the World War.
