Dogma 2 Michael Schmaus,1969      Dogma 2 Michael Schmaus,1968      Dogma 2 Michael Schmaus,1969      Dogma, Vol 2:God and Creation; The Foundations of Christology (A Project of John XXIII Institute). M. Schmaus,1978

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Cosmology and Biological Evolution Hilary D. Regan,Mark William Worthing,2002 This collection of essays examines cosmology biology and evolutionary theory      Scripture Francis Etheredge,2014-06-19 Scripture is an amazing word this is a word that both acts at the heart of a person's life and begets a testimony like itself The more a person looks into the depths of this word the clearer it is that there is both real human authorship and an incredibly subtle presence of the divine Author There are not however two words but one mysteriously enriched word of God a word at once ancient and ever open to the challenges of contemporary questions and concerns Secondly if dialogue is a characteristic of God Scripture expresses this through the multitude of voices through which it is written So whether it is a matter of listening to this word in the Church drawing on foundational studies on the biblical text or researching questions in embryology philosophy theology marriage and ecumenism a person is drawn into an amazingly fertile divine human dialogue Indeed in the end it is impossible to express the number of human beings who are in this dialogue and in that very impossibility there is a glimpse of the mystery of God calling us to a dynamic communion Finally given the great challenge of thinking that a person is so immersed in a subjectivism that drowns inter personal dialogue the word of God comes to strengthen the search for truth and facilitates the investigations that transcend individuals groups nations cultures and times For Scripture cannot be more centred in a time a place a people it cannot be more subjective in its account of an immense variety of human experience But then the very historical consistency of the fact that this heritage of utterly human experience has been able to speak to mankind as a whole at any time in any place in any culture is an incredibly convincing testimony that this is a unique word a word that both arises out of a profound anthropology of man and can destroy isolation and effect communion This book then takes up these questions both intensely personal and profoundly contemporary and lets the words Listen Israel resound throughout its pages      The Christian Vision of Humanity John Randall Sachs,1991 The incredible technical achievements of recent history may make us feel little less than gods but we also find much that cuts us down When we face our own limits and failures upon what or whom can we rely The biblical answer to questions about the ultimate nature and meaning of human life begins with the experience of Semitic slaves led out of Egyptian slavery beautifully recounted in Deuteronomy 26 5 11 The New Testament presents Jesus as the culmination of God's Old Testament promise Christian faith has a particular Vision of the world and of humanity founded upon the relationship between God and creation Its key elements are found in the inviolable dignity of every person the essential centrality of community and the significance of human action These are the main themes of a Christian anthropology developed in this book      Love Divine Jordan Wessling,2020 Love Divine provides a systematic account of the deep and rich love that God has for humans clarifying and defending conclusions concerning how the doctrine of divine love should be approached It presents a unified theological account of divine love punitive wrath and redemption Toward a Theology of the Body Mary Timothy Prokes,1996 An accessible comprehensive introduction to basic issues concerning the meaning and destiny of the lived body and the material universe Christian Dogmatics and Notes on the History of Dogma Conrad Emil Lindberg,1922 Special Divine Action Paul Gwynne,1996 The concept of special divine action namely that God acts in special ways at particular times and places in history is one of the most fundamental presuppositions of the Christian faith It is presumed in a wide range of beliefs on such matters as special revelation incarnation resurrection petitionary prayer particular providence and miracles Yet it has come under serious criticism in recent times especially with the rise of the natural sciences This study examines the coherence and credibility of the concept as it emerges from the philosophical and theological debates of the last thirty years The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1977 The Salesianum ,1969

The riddle of the universe at the close of the nineteenth century, tr. by J. McCabe Ernst Heinrich P.A. Haeckel,1902 Catholic Colleges of the United States of America at the Middle of the Twentieth Century ,1952 The New Dictionary of Catholic Spirituality Michael Downey,1993 A Michael Glazier book Moral Implication of High Bride-price in Nigeria John Osom,1989 Theological Studies William James McGarry,John Courtney Murray,1970

Dogma : Volume I : God in Revelation ,1968 Letter & Spirit, Vol. 7 Fr William Kurtz,Stephen M. Hildebrand,Owen M. Phelan,2012-07 This is the seventh annual volume of the remarkably popular journal of biblical theology edited by Scott Hahn and his St Paul Center for Biblical Theology This volume responds to the call of Pope Benedict XVI in his Apostolic Exhortation Verbum Domini for a thoughtful return to the Fathers of the Church and how they approached Sacred Scripture This is not in any way to jettison historical critical methods and the valuable insights that modern biblical scholarship has brought to light It is simply to acknowledge what Pope Benedict calls for a measured return to the interpretive methods employed by the Church Fathers as well as the theology that flowed from their exegetical labors As he said The Church Fathers present a theology that still has great value today because at its heart is the study of sacred Scripture as a whole Indeed the Fathers are primarily and essentially commentators on sacred Scripture Highlights include original articles by Fr William Kurtz SJ Matthew Levering Father Stephen Ryan OP Stephen Hildebrand Owen Phelan and Michael Barber as well as an original translation of Joseph Ratzinger s Pope Benedict XVI foundational essay Vicarious Representation by Father Jared Wicks SJ
