Contours of a World View Arthur Frank Holmes, 1983 In a world ravaged by dehumanizing barbarism and torn by ideological conflict writes Arthur Holmes we have an obligation to rekindle and disseminate the Christian vision of a unified world view But to live and think Christianity in today s world does not come easily It means says Holmes ferreting out the influence of non Christian assumptions and bringing distinctively Christian presuppositions to bear in their place Contours of a World View which introduces the series sets the stage for this important task Holmes discusses the nature of world views both secular and Christian and the overall contours of a distinctively Christian world view in relationship to the history of ideas as well as to the contemporary mind outlining a Christian view of things as a live alternative to the naturalistic humanism prevalent today An Introduction to Christian Worldview Tawa J. Anderson, W. Michael Clark, David K. Naugle, 2017-10-10 Why do worldviews matter What characterizes a Christian worldview Part of being a thoughtful Christian means being able to understand and express the Christian worldview as well as developing an awareness of the variety of worldviews Well organized clearly written and featuring aids for learning this is the essential text for either the classroom or for self study Christian Contours Douglas S. Huffman, 2012-01-12 What does it mean to think and live Christianly in a world of competing worldviews Christian Contours answers this question by inviting readers to consider the understanding of reality proposed by the Bible Though it is easy to divide life into separate compartments religious and secular theological and practical faith invites us to view all of life in the light of that Biblical understanding Presenting a clear compelling case for unity in essential Christian tenets the authors of Christian Contours guide the reader through developing internalizing and articulating a biblical worldview This robust worldview enables the Christian to be a critically thinking participant in culture and to be a faithful disciple of Christ with both heart and mind Geography and Worldview Henk Aay, S. Griffioen, 1998 How do geographers worldviews interact with the discipline of geography In Geography and Worldview the editors begin by mapping two approaches to studying the intersection of science and religious belief an approach that asks what consequences scientists basic beliefs have on scientific research and one that extrapolates implications of their research Essays using both approaches appear in this volume creating a well balanced collection with a variety of perspectives from established scholars in geography Creating a Christian Worldview Peter Somers Heslam, 1998 Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 dominated the religious and political life of the Netherlands for nearly half a century and his ideas continue to inspire an international school of thought This book by Peter Heslam discusses Kuyper s ideas in their context by providing a historical commentary on the book in which they receive their most significant expression Lectures on Calvinism a series of six lectures that Kuyper delivered at Princeton Theological Seminary in 1898 Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary, 1985 Worldview, 1976 Anatomy of Reformation B. J. With All Your Mind Michael L. Peterson, 2001 With All Your Mind makes a compelling case for the value of thinking deeply about education in America from a historically orthodox and broadly ecumenical Christian point of view Few people dispute that education in America is in a state of crisis But not many have posed workable solutions to this serious problem Michael Peterson contends that thinking philosophically about education is our only hope for meaningful progress In this refreshing book he invites all who are concerned about education in America to participate in his study which analyzes representative theories and practical strategies that reveal the power of Christian ideas in this vital area Peterson addresses the most fundamental questions facing educators and society in general such as What is the purpose of education What goals do new techniques and methods serve What kind of person is our educational system supposed to produce He also explores questions of unique importance to Christians such as What is the relation between Christianity and the pursuit of intellectual excellence How can Christians bring their faith to bear on all areas of knowledge Can educated Christians significantly influence culture With All Your Mind examines the key assumptions and implications of influential classical and contemporary philosophies with respect to education including idealism naturalism Thomism experimentalism existentialism linguistic analysis and postmodernism Based on this analysis Peterson develops an unapologetically Christian philosophy of education in regard to curriculum design instilling ethics and values and the nature of teaching and learning Peterson further advances the merits of an ecumenical Christian philosophy of education by showing how it can be used to analyze key issues in educational theory such as the relation of general education to liberal learning the integration of faith and learning and the demand for professional and technical training From a practical standpoint Peterson s approach brings balance and common sense to issues such as the clash between public and private education the rise of multiculturalism the changing demographic and psychological profile of America s youth and the impact of computer and Internet technology With All Your Mind concludes with a stirring vision for education that is embedded in an all encompassing Christian view of life Using clear jargon free language Peterson teaches a good deal of basic philosophy while developing a powerful argument for the value of liberal arts education interacting with Christian faith at all levels of schooling

One World, Many Neighbors Perry C. Cotham, 2008 Is there a God who calls us to a discipleship of our minds What is the uniqueness of Christianity Do the major non Christian worldviews and world religions have any insights or inspiration to offer those who have chosen the Christian journey Is God at work within the various religions drawing people to himself Addressing provocative questions like these Professor Perry Cotham challenges readers to re examine long held attitudes on life s most crucially important issues
