Demons And Angels A Life Of Jacob Epstein:

Demons and Angels June Rose,2002 A fascinating portrait of one of the key figures in twentieth century art chronicles the rags to riches story of Jacob Epstein from his poverty stricken New York youth to his extraordinary success and influence as a sculptor at the time of his death and details his frequently turbulent personal life his role as an iconoclast in art circles and more

Daemons and Angels June Rose,2002 A biography of controversial sculptor Jacob Epstein Epstein was born in 1880 in the Jewish ghetto of New York but by his death in 1959 he had met almost everybody of importance in the art world This work contains an account of his tangled private life and its resonance in his work

COMING, NOT GOING Wendy Jennings,2019-09-17 This is a record of a search but what matters is the finding It began when the death of my husband a priest jolted me into recognising that the belonging I had always thought I had inside traditional Church doctrine and liturgy wasn't there no connection between it and the feeling quick of me Urgent and hungry for understanding with my back to the Church door I found myself suddenly focusing on creativity on the description of a creator God making man in his own image That set me searching the work and words of some of the greatest creators painters sculptors musicians writers and then scientists for clues to the possibility or not of an overarching creativity What I've found has astonished me extraordinary coherence of creative experiences across cultures and centuries coherence that insists on both the breath taking glories and mysteries of a physical world that is patterned yet open Rich feeding of my inside life but more creativity mirroring that of the adult Jesus in the Gospels turning my sense of a possible God of holiness and what it is to be human inside out

Art, Memoir and Jung Juliet Miller,2020-10-26 In this intimate study Juliet Miller maps the artworks that have influenced her throughout her life and examines how she has integrated them into her development as a psychotherapist Working from the premise that our initial reactions to art provide a crucial key to self analysis Miller interrogates the significance of different artists including Bourgeois Vermeer Rousseau and Kahlo and analyses how personal circumstances recollections and emotions have affected responses to their work Chapters incorporate clinical material from Miller's practice linking into her own anxieties about sitting with and connecting with patients and touching on themes including creativity character identity and communication Through this exploration she questions many of the conventions of art and psychotherapy and suggests ways in which looking at art can be used as a psychological tool Art Memoir and Jung offers a highly personal and innovative perspective on meaning in art and how it can be used to explore Jungian thought as based in the aesthetic and how the aesthetic can inform depth psychology

The Image of Christ in Modern Art Richard Harries,2016-03-03 The Image of Christ in Modern Art explores the challenges presented by the radical and rapid changes of artistic style in the 20th century to artists who wished to relate to traditional Christian imagery In the 1930s David Jones said that he and his contemporaries were acutely conscious of the break by which he meant the fragmentation and loss of a once widely shared Christian narrative and set of images In this highly illustrated book Richard Harries looks at some of the artists associated with the birth of modernism such as Epstein and Rouault as well as those with a highly distinctive understanding of religion such as Chagall and Stanley Spencer He discusses the revival of confidence associated with the rebuilding of Coventry Cathedral after World War II and the commissioning of work by artists like Henry Moore Graham Sutherland and John Piper before looking at the very testing last quarter of the 20th century He shows how here and even more in our own time fresh and important visual interpretations of Christ have been created both by well known and less well known artists In conclusion he suggests that the modern movement in art has turned out to be a friend not a foe of Christian art Through a wide and beautiful range of images and insightful text Harries explores the continuing challenge present from the beginning of Christian art as to how that which is visual can in some way indicate the transcendent

Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists Samantha Baskind,2007 Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists presents over 80 19th and 20 century Jewish American artists ranging from the critically neglected Theresa Bernstein Ruth Gikow and Jennings Tofel to the well known Eva Hesse Roy Lichtenstein and Larry Rivers The subject matter of some of these artists may surprise readers Adolph Gottlieb designed and supervised the fabrication of a 35 foot wide four story high stained glass facade for a synagogue Louise Nevelson sculpted a Holocaust memorial and Philip Pearlstein painted a version of Moses with the Tablets of the Law early in his career Covering painters sculptors printmakers and photographers as well as artists who engage in newer forms of visual expression such as video conceptual and performance art the book is in part intended to stimulate further scholarship on these artists When appropriate entries reveal the influence of the Jewish American encounter on the artists work along with other factors such as gender and the immigrant experience In many cases the artists own words are employed to flesh out perspectives on their art as well as on their Jewish identity To that end the volume contains excerpts from recent interviews conducted by the author with some of the artists including Judy Chicago Audrey Flack Jack Levine and Sol LeWitt
