Doctor In Vietnam:

MASH Doctor in Vietnam Reuel S. Long, M.D.,2022-11-18 Reuel Long's experiences as an MD in the emergency rooms of Flint Michigan prepared him for only some of what he would see in a mobile army surgical hospital. Antiwar sentiment among the doctors in basic training at Fort Sam Houston set the tone for his tour as a general medical officer. In March 1971 the 27th MASH played a critical role treating survivors of the deadliest attack on any firebase during the Vietnam War. Long's vivid memoir recalls the casualties he cared for during the war including one he crossed paths with 44 years later who in his own words describes his rehabilitation from the loss of his legs and his protesting the war from a wheelchair. An addendum gives an insider's account of the U.S. military's failure to remedy a fatal design flaw in the M16 rifle which caused an unknown number of American casualties.

A Doctor's Vietnam Journal Carl E. Bartecchi,2006 Bitter Medicine, a Doctor's Year in Vietnam Eugene Eisman,2013-09-20 Bitter Medicine recalls a disturbing time of great contention and bitterness. But it is a personal story. It is the story of leaving my family, my perspective of the Vietnamese culture, the politics and combat seen as a young physician. I earned my street cred as an army doc during the Vietnam War. As with the other physicians called into service I was the unlikely soldier. My book is poignant and often humorous. We needed the humor to survive. I would never have volunteered for such a traumatic experience yet I can't say I wish I'd never gone to Vietnam. I believe this experience had a major positive effect on molding me into who I am today. In the words of a Special Forces soldier he described this sentiment accurately: I wouldn't go back to Vietnam for a million dollars. On the other hand I wouldn't have given up the experience for a million dollars.

A Doctor's Vietnam Journal Carl E. Bartecchi, M.D.,2020-02-26 Merriam Press Military History. A history of military and civilian medicine in Vietnam from World War II when the Japanese occupied Indochina through the French occupation after World War II and the American involvement in Vietnam up to the present day. It is also a journal of the author's service as a doctor in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War and later when he organized humanitarian aid for the Vietnamese and in particular assisting one hospital and its staff with training equipment and supplies. Foreword by Patrick Brady MG USA Ret who served as a Dustoff helicopter pilot in Vietnam and recipient of the Medal of Honor. 63 photos, 2 illustrations, 5 maps.

12, 20 & 5 John A. Parrish,2013-09-03 The wry and heart wrenching memoir of a young doctor's year behind the frontlines in Vietnam. Assigned to the marine camp at Phu Bai Dr John A Parrish confronted all manner of medical trauma quickly shedding the naivete of a new medical intern. With this memoir he crafts a haunting humane portrait of one man's agonizing confrontation with war. With a wife and two children awaiting his return home the young physician lives through the most turbulent and formative year of his life and finds himself molded into a true doctor by the raw tragedy of the battlefield. His endless work is punctuated only by the arrival of the next helicopter bearing more casualties and the stark announcements: 12 litter borne wounded, 20 ambulatory wounded and 5 dead. 12/20/5 is an intimate and unique look at the effects of war that Library Journal calls an autobiographical MASH.
