conference, 1986 Military Intelligence, 1988 Beyond the INF Treaty Richard N. Haass, 1988-04-29 With the signing of the intermediate range nuclear forces INF treaty in December 1987 a chapter in NATO history came to an end This agreement eliminated an entire class of nuclear weapons from Europe This volume analyzes the possible repercussions of the INF treaty in the context of NATO's overall doctrine of flexible response and concludes that the U.S. and NATO must adopt arms and arms control policies consistent with one another and with NATO doctrine Co-published with the Center for Science and International Affairs Harvard University Arms Control And Security Wolfram F. Hanrieder, 1979-07-19 Magtbalance processes of nuclear policymaking in NATO and the interaction of alliance strategy with the doctrines underlying it Dr Buteux focuses on the issue of theatre nuclear force modernisation to illustrate his thesis that NATO's strategic posture results from a political process in which other than purely strategic objectives are sought agreements on alliance strategy may in fact be related only indirectly to the actual military posture of the alliance and the means available to support it The book highlights the cumulative effect of strategic and technological change on the strategy and nuclear politics of NATO Emphasizing that the present strategic environment has called into question many of the strategic and political premises on which NATO's nuclear posture has been based Dr Buteux gives special attention to recent proposals to deploy enhanced radiation weapons the neutron bomb and new intermediate range nuclear weapons in Europe He considers the impact of these proposals on NATO's nuclear policymaking process and on the ability of the alliance to continue to base its deterrent posture on the concept of flexible response The Two Koreas Peter Polomka, 1986 En analyse af situationen på den koreanske halvø som
