Documentary Explorations:

Documentary Explorations G. Roy Levin, 1971      Voyages of Discovery Barry Keith Grant, 2023-05-16 Frederick Wiseman is America's foremost chronicler of public institutions. His films have focused on city, state, and local governments, hospitals, asylums, creative organizations, and museums, schools, libraries, and more. In recent years, Wiseman's work has reached a new level of popularity with films such as In Jackson Heights (2015), Monrovia, Indiana (2018), and City Hall (2020), all earning widespread acclaim. Voyages of Discovery is the definitive account of Wiseman's career, offering a comprehensive analysis of the work of the leading documentary filmmaker in the United States. In this updated edition, Barry Keith Grant adds new material exploring the documentarian's works since the 1990s, discussing every film in Wiseman's remarkable sixty-year career. He examines the core concerns running across Wiseman's work, from the early films which focus on documenting institutional failure through an expanding interest in cultural institutions and ideology to a blossoming embrace of democracy in later films. He pays particular attention to Wiseman's strategies for involving and implicating the spectator in the institutional processes the films document. Grant also places Wiseman within the history of the documentary and other traditions of American art and considers the relationship between documentary film and authorship. Voyages of Discovery is an important book for anyone interested in Wiseman's work or how documentary film can reveal the fabric of our shared civic life.      The Postmodern Arts Nigel Wheale, 1995 The Postmodern Arts provides essential material and invaluable guidance for students of modern literature and culture.

When the Moon Waxes Red Trinh T. Minh-ha, 2014-02-04 In this new collection of her provocative essays on Third World art and culture, Trinh Minh-ha offers new challenges to Western regimes of knowledge. Bringing to her subjects an acute sense of the many meanings of the marginal, she examines topics such as Asian and African texts, the theories of Barthes, questions of spectatorship, the enigmas of art, and the perils of anthropology. When the Moon Waxes Red is an extended argument against reductive analyses, even those that appear politically adroit. The multiply hyphenated peoples of color are not simply placed in a duality between two cultural heritages; throughout, Trinh describes the predicament of having to live a difference that has no name and too many names already. She argues for multicultural revision of knowledge so that a new politics can transform reality rather than merely ideologize it. By rewriting the always-emerging, already-distorted place of struggle, such work seeks to beat the master at his own game.

History of Brulé's Discoveries and Explorations, 1610-1626 Consul Willshire Butterfield, 1898      The Last Waltz of The Band Neil Minturn, 2005 For Vol 2 of the series CMS Sourcebooks in American Music, Neil Minturn acknowledges the phenomenon of rock and roll with a serious examination of Martin Scorsese's film THE LAST WALTZ (1978), the celebrated rockumentary that so artfully captured for posterity the final performance of The Band. From 1861 to 1976, this partnership of one American and four Canadians produced an impressive body of popular song in the rock idiom. Between 1961 and 1976, joining its members for their farewell performance are a variety of guests who, like The Band itself, reflected the rich array of traditions that have nourished rock and roll since its emergence Minturn approaches the substance of the performances and the film itself in terms of intimacy and tradition He presents the San Francisco concert as a summation of an extraordinary musical journey and prefaces his scene by scene analysis with a cogent introduction to documentary filmmaking Selected performances are discussed in detail History of Indiana from Its Exploration to 1922 Logan Esarey,1918 The Sixties Paul Monaco,2003-06 This book covers the 1960 s as part of the definitive history of American cinema from its emergence in the 1800s to the present day A History of Indiana from Its Exploration to 1850 Logan Esarey,1915 Readings in Feminist Rhetorical Theory Karen A.
