Monumental Names Galina Oustinova-Stjepanovic,2022-12-30 What stands behind the propensity to remember victims of mass atrocities by their personal names Grounded in ethnographic and archival research with Last Address and Memorial one of the oldest independent archives of Soviet political repressions in Moscow and a winner of the Nobel Peace Prize the book examines a version of archival activism that is centred on various practices of documentation and commemoration of many dead victims of historical violence in Russia to understand what kind of historicity is produced when a single name is added to an endless list What do acts of accumulation of names of the dead affirm when they are concretised in monuments and performance events The key premise is that multimodal inscriptions of names of the dead entail a political aesthetic and conceptual movement between singularity and multitude that honours each dead name yet conveys the scale of a mass atrocity without reducing it to a number Drawing on anthropology history philosophy and aesthetic theory the book yields a new perspective on the politics of archival and historical justice while it critically engages with the debates on relations and distinctions between names and numbers of the dead monumental art and its political effects law and history image and text the specific one and the infinite many The Importance of Using Primary Sources in Social Studies, K-8 Elaine M. Bukowiecki,2014-03-12 This two part book provides teachers in kindergarten through grade eight with a valuable resource as how to include primary sources in a social studies curriculum along with a required social studies textbook The first section of this book contains descriptions with relevant examples of primary documents and authentic artifacts that are appropriate for incorporation into social studies classrooms In the second part of this book the application of primary sources for specific social studies instruction is presented This book specifically presents ways to use primary sources as means to explore the community where the students reside to make connections to past and present events and to research a specific change agent in a particular place Each chapter contains questions and pedagogical strategies for critically reading viewing and responding to varied authentic artifacts techniques for interacting with primary materials modifications to meet the needs of diverse learners assessment techniques information tied to technology and the new literacies and connections to the National Curriculum Standards for the Social Studies 2010 and the Common Core State Standards 2010 Autographs and
