The Supreme Fictions of John Banville Joseph McMinn, 1999 This work offers a critical commentary on the range of John Banville's fiction including the plays and views that fiction in the contexts of contemporary critical theory particularly those of postmodernism and feminism It argues that Banville's work is deeply influenced by romantic and modernist mythologies of the creative imagination especially those expressed by Coleridge and Wallace Stevens Banville's interest in systems of knowledge and forms of representation is a major issue in the study and McMinn investigates his use of paintings as metaphors
