Absence New And Selected Poems

Absence New And Selected Poems:

Absence Antigone Kefala, 1992 A collection of poems by a Greek Australian for whom alienation is a recurring theme Selections from three previously published volumes are included as well as new works The Cambridge Companion to Australian Poetry Ann Vickery, 2024-06-13 This volume investigates Australian poetry's centrality to debates around colonialism nationalism diversity embodiment local global relations and the environment When My Absence Becomes a Moon Laureta Rexha, 2024-09-26 Praise for Laureta Rexha's When My Absence Becomes a Moon Within wonderfully visual tensions winter and spring perception and truth stagnation and rebirth waxing and waning Rexha reminds us to find the peace that is all around us in a waterfall a painting a city prayer Stunningly delicate and impactful Crescent Reviews Laureta Rexha's poems are a journey through a landscape of self discovery confession and eventual contentment Each poem captures a milestone in this journey Wael Almahdi author of A Breeze from the East Laureta Rexha establishes herself as a poet who explores and offers her own responses to the drama of modern humanity from their relationship with the Creator to the individual's relationship with themselves amidst their crisis of alienation Regarding the information conveyed in her verses it can be said that it is measured and for the most part not explicit requiring effort to decipher This is certainly connected to the author's worldview which is guided by morality and a belief in the recipient's ability to absorb subtle information Milazim Krasniqi author of Rigjetja e Vetes Both a profound observation on the facets of conversion and a love letter to God's creation Laureta Rexha's When My Absence Becomes a Moon guides the reader through a rediscovery of humanity and the universe While inner peace can be found the path remains challenging with the world continuing to present its pains and uncertainties Laureta's work captures both the innocence of conversion and the inevitable coming of age that all of humanity experiences Your mind will have traversed many planes of thought and wonder by the time the book is done and you'll yearn to take that trip again Warren Clementson poet and primary school teacher Rexha's collection of poems gives us pause for patient reflection laden with urgency of a universe locked within the human soul Navigating between distant galaxies the change of the seasons to the beating of one's heart and ticking of the clock deep in the night To the laughter of children and the familiar sights of her beloved city streets to the quiet restraints of her familiar home that she longs to leave but always returns where it forever shapes her soul Like the girl who does not know how to leave Rexha leaves us loving accepting but wanting more Reminding us of the profound transitory nature of life like the scent of a white flower we have missed in our haste and the realization of the moment gone and the splendor transformed A beautiful dance between the mundane and sublime Brandon Mayfield author of Grains of Destiny Rexha's collection of poems is a breathtaking journey through Divine love and the beauty of life Her vivid imagery and emotionally resonant language struck a deep chord with me as a fellow poet What sets Rexha's work apart is her unique ability to weave these themes with such grace and clarity creating a tapestry of words that feels both timeless and refreshingly original Her poetry offers a perspective that is deeply personal yet universally relatable making this collection a truly remarkable and unforgettable experience Flamur Vehapi author of Verses of the Heart Meaningful Absence Across Arts and Media, 2019-03-27 This volume focusses on a rarely discussed method of meaning production namely via the absence rather than presence of signifiers It does so from an interdisciplinary transmedial perspective which covers systematic media comparative and historical aspects and reveals various forms and functions of missing signifiers across arts and media The meaningful silences blanks lacunae pauses etc treated by the ten contributors are taken from language and literature film comics opera and instrumental music architecture and the visual arts Contributors are Nassim Balestrini Walter Bernhart Olga Fischer Saskia Jaszoltowski Henry Keazor Peter Revers Klaus Rieser Daniel Stein Anselm Wagner Werner Wolf Paul Auster and the Influence of Maurice Blanchot María Laura Arce, 2016-04-11 Poet writer and filmmaker Paul Auster is one of the great contributors to American postmodern literature Influenced by authors like Poe and the hardboiled detective stories of the 1950s Auster's novels represented a new genre of anti detective fiction in which the case itself loses direction and is overshadowed by existential questions Analyzing three of his novels Ghosts 1986 The Music of Chance 1990 and Mr Vertigo 1994 this critical study explores the intertextual relationship between Auster's work and the oeuvre of French writer and critic Maurice Blanchot The author explores Auster's work as a fictionalization of Blanchot's concept of inspiration and the construction of imaginary space In the Presence of Absence Richard Widerkehr, 2017-08-12 Richard Widerkehr's In the Presence of Absence is a book of loss and recovery grief and wonder These are poems informed with clarity and compassion and a quiet lyricism in confronting the mortal world the death of parents and life threatening illness Joseph Stroud author of Of This World New and Selected Poems The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson, 2013-09-26 This Handbook offers an authoritative and up to date collection of original essays bringing together ground breaking research into the development of contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print, 1975-1977 Marietta Chicorel, 1978 Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1975 Presences and Absences - Transdisciplinary Essays Katarína Labudova, Nóra Séllei, 2013-10-03 This volume discusses the question of presence and or absence from a transdisciplinary perspective and intends to provide insights into how a wide range of disciplines addresses this issue which has been at the centre of philosophical theoretical and critical debates in the past decades As the essays in the volume prove apparently diverse areas can have a lot in common and talk to each other in sometimes surprising ways The topics discussed include modals in various languages and black slave funeral sermons pragmatic markers and the Australian Stolen Generation the transcendental in poems by Ann Bradstreet Arthur Symons and Philip Larkin short stories by Katherine Mansfield generic presences in Virginia Woolf and contemporary journalism haunting presences in fin de siècle ghost stories and in a contemporary horror film mythical structures in John Cowper Powys and Margaret Atwood and gender politics in Pat Barker and Sarah Waters The analyses as they talk to each other create multiple dialogues without imposing closures and ultimate interpretations on the plethora of possible meanings emerging from the juxtaposition of these essays This transdisciplinary volume written in an erudite but reader friendly language will be of great interest to both the academic world as well as a broader readership interested in how linguistic phenomena in general cultural myths of all kinds various cinematic literary and journalistic genres from diverse periods can be approached and opened up to new readings and meanings from the perspective of presences and absences
