Art as a Way of Talking for Emergent Bilingual Youth Berta Rosa

Berriz, Amanda Claudia Wager, Vivian Maria Poey, 2018-08-06 This book features effective artistic practices to improve literacy and language skills for emergent bilinguals in PreK-12 schools. Including insights from key voices from the field, this book highlights how artistic practices can increase proficiency in emergent language learners and students with limited access to academic English. Challenging current prescriptions for teaching English to language learners, the arts-integrated framework in this book is grounded in a sense of student and teacher agency and offers key pedagogical tools to build upon students' sociocultural knowledge and improve language competence and confidence. Offering rich and diverse examples of using the arts as a way of talking, this volume invites teacher educators, teachers, artists, and researchers to reconsider how to fully engage students in their own learning and best use the resources within their own multilingual educational settings and communities.

Hollywood or History? Tim Monreal, Jesús A. Tirado, 2025-06-20 Hollywood or History helps classroom teachers include more accurate Latinx stories in their classroom. We believe that when used intentionally and critically, media representations of Latinx communities and histories are powerful tools for high-quality curriculum and instruction.

Kaleidoscope Rosalinda Benavides Barrera, Verlinda D. Thompson, Mark Dressman, 1997 Multicultural literature for elementary and middle school. Early Literacy in Preschool and Kindergarten Janice J. Beaty, Linda Pratt, 2007 For introductory courses in Early Childhood Literacy. A well-known early childhood author joins with a literacy expert to offer a brand-new approach to early literacy in preschool leading into kindergarten reading. New research on how literacy emerges is put to use in chapters on setting up a literacy-friendly learning environment, music and art as natural languages, strengthening finger muscles for writing through 3-dimensional art, cooking and woodworking, developing visual representational skills à la Reggio Emilia, developing the important sense of story sequence through role plays, story reenactments, and flannel board stories. Teachers are asked to make a paradigm shift in regard to their opinion of children's books as mere sources of entertainment. This text uses picture books as keys to unlocking an entire curriculum of literacy activities with cultural book characters like real children leading preschool and kindergarten listeners into learning centers filled with exciting literacy activities for them to pursue on their own. Teacher-oriented are discussed along with suggestions on how and when to use each. A discussion of the new early childhood curriculum standards suggests ways to incorporate them in early childhood classrooms.
