

Literacy Memoirs

INVOLVING STUDENTS
IN MEANINGFUL
WRITING

STUDENTS USUALLY VIEW WRITING AS A REQUIREMENT TO PASS A GRADE, OR as homework, but not as a lively means to express their joys, sorrows, experiences, or curiosities. However, through writing their literacy memoirs, students can overcome their reluctance to write and show significant progress in the process. A memoir, unlike general schoolwork, can make students reflect about those specific and memorable events that have contributed along the road to literacy. Using process writing to tell that story in English can be a meaningful experience for students.
