Academic Pathfinders:

Academic Pathfinders Patricia J. Gumport, 2002-03-30 From the 1960s to the 1980s a range of academic possibilities for women developed as their career histories and intellectual biographies reveal Some women sought to generate a new knowledge specialty in their disciplines often explicitly defying admonishments that the subject matter was an oxymoron Others pursued academic paths that disregarded these new opportunities and developments Together their accounts portray how feminist scholarship emerged and was facilitated by historically specific conditions a critical mass of like minded women a national political movement an abundance of financial support for doctoral candidates a tolerance from established faculty for students to pursue the margins of disciplinary scholarship and an organizational capacity to add new academic categories for courses programs academic positions and extra departmental groups That historical era has since been supplanted by feminist infighting and backlash as well as more cost conscious academic management practices which have altered the academic landscape for knowledge creation Analyzing the accounts of academic women during this era yields a conceptual framework for understanding how new knowledge is created on multiple levels through personal reflection on life experiences disciplinary legacies local organizational contexts and wider societal expectations Academic Pathfinders Patricia J. Gumport, Greenwood, 2009 Advances understanding of the dynamics of knowledge creation and the struggle for legitimacy that may accompany new scholarly ideas such as feminist studies Acting Otherwise Peiying Chen, 2004-04 Acting Otherwise concerns the strategies of action that have been used by feminist scholars to attain the institutionalization of women's gender studies in universities Intellectual Leadership in Higher Education Bruce Macfarlane, 2013-07-03 This book provides a theoretical exploration of the meaning of intellectual leadership with particular reference to university professors and other senior academics It draws on new international research data online survey and interviews and provides a practical series of ideas and recommendations for defining the role of a university professor Libri, 2002 Vols 4 24 include Communications of the International Federation of Library Associations IFLA FIAB Critical Approaches to Women and Gender in Higher Education Pamela L. Eddy, Kelly Ward, Tehmina Khwaja, 2017-01-12 This volume provides a critical examination of the status of women and gender in higher education today Despite the increasing numbers of women in higher education gendered structures continue to hinder women's advancement in academia This book goes beyond the numbers to examine the issues facing those members of academia with non dominant gender identities The authors analyze higher education structures from a range of perspectives and offer recommendations at individual and institutional levels to encourage activism and advance equality in academia Women Scholars in Hong Kong Nian Ruan, 2024-01-02 This book depicts the diverse approaches of established women professors in perceiving and developing intellectual leadership in Hong Kong It analyzes the combined influences of various disciplines different higher education institutions and gender on the careers of female scholars in the East Asian region The complexity and interaction of academic careers for women disciplinary contexts higher education systems and socio cultural environments may present a relatively holistic landscape for readers interested in academic life and leadership Scholars administrators managers and policymakers in higher education related fields may gain comprehensive ideas to facilitate faculty and institutional development through a cultural and sociological lens This may empower female academics and students while also providing benefits for doctoral students and early career researchers seeking insights into the evolving advantages and disadvantages in women s academic careers Audiences interested in gender issues may find it intriguing to compare women scholars with women in other professions and in different cultural contexts

The Development of Higher Education Research in Europe Barbara M. Kehm, Christine Musselin, 2013-10-30 Though the book is a contribution to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Consortium of Higher Education Researchers CHER it is not just about the history of the organisation as such The contributions provide an account of the emergence of higher education as a field of study and research in Europe its institutionalisation and its relationships to higher education policy and practice Furthermore higher education research in Europe is contrasted to and contextualised by the example of higher education research and scholarship in Australia The book is useful as an account about the emergence and development of higher education research as a field of study and research in Europe It will be an interesting and insightful read for all scholars and young researchers wanting to know about higher education research but also for scholars in fields like history of science disciplinary differentiation institutionalisation of fields of knowledge and research

American Higher Education Since World War II Roger L. Geiger, 2021-05-25 Geiger provides an in depth history of the remarkable transformation of higher education in the United States in the decades after World War II taking readers from the GI Bill and the postwar expansion of higher education to the social upheaval of the 1960s and 1970s desegregation and coeducation and the challenges confronting American colleges today Shedding light on the tensions and triumphs of an era of rapid change the author shows how American universities emerged after the war as the world s most successful system for the advancement of knowledge how the pioneering of mass higher education led to the goal of higher education for all and how the selectivity sweepstakes for admission to the most elite schools has resulted in increased stratification today Geiger identifies 1980 as a turning point when the link between research and economic development stimulated a revival in academic research and the ascendancy of the modern research university that continues to the present Sweeping in scope this book demonstrates how growth has been the defining feature of modern higher education but how each generation since the war has pursued it for different reasons It provides the context we need to understand the complex issues facing our colleges and universities today from rising inequality and skyrocketing costs to deficiencies in student preparedness and lax educational standards From publisher description

American Higher Education in the Twenty-First Century Michael N. Bastedo, Philip G. Altbach, Patricia J. Gumport, 2016-03-30 An indispensable reference that everyone concerned with the future of American colleges and universities should acquire First published in 1999 American Higher Education in the Twenty First Century offered a comprehensive introduction to the central issues facing American colleges and universities This thoroughly revised edition brings the classic volume up to date The contributors have rewritten every chapter to address major changes in higher education including the rise of organized social movements the problem of income inequality and stratification and the growth of for profit and distance education Three new chapters cover information technology community colleges and teaching and learning This edition seeks to capture several crucial dynamics in the nexus of higher education and society Placing higher education within its social and political contexts the contributors discuss finance federal and state governance faculty students curriculum and academic leadership They also grapple with growing concerns about the future of the academy and reflect more deeply on the racial ethnic and socioeconomic diversity within higher education No other book covers such wide ranging issues under the broader theme of higher education s relationship to society Highly acclaimed and incorporating cutting edge research American Higher Education in the Twenty First Century is now more useful and engaging than ever Contributors Michael N Bastedo Philip G Altbach Patricia J Gumport Benjamin Baez Peter Riley Bahr Joy Blanchard Corbin M Campbell Melanie E Corrigan Peter D Eckel Roger L Geiger Lawrence E Gladieux Sara Goldrick Rab Jillian Leigh Gross D Bruce Johnstone Adrianna Kezar Jacqueline E King Aims C McGuinness Jr Michael Mumper Anna Neumann Robert M O Neil Laura W Perna Gary Rhoades Roman Ruiz Lauren Schudde Sheila Slaughter Daryl G Smith
