Male Homosexuality in South Africa Gordon Isaacs,Brian McKendrick,1992 The book describes the identity formation and culture of the male homosexual in South Africa It deals with topics such as the gay sub culture AIDS implications for helping professionals crisis about coming out and the formal gay movement Repeated reference is made to case studies Challenging several misconceptions about homosexuality this work provides insight into the nature of homosexual identity

Poet Lore ,1999

The Metamorphoses of Don Juan's Women Ann Davies,2004 While many scholars have approached Don Juan in terms of myth this study argues for the understanding of Don Juan as a discourse of gender relations changing over time Using examples from the plays by Tirso de Molina Moliere Mozart Zorrila Shaw and Frisch it argues that Don Juan s entire identity as a male individual is constructed around women but that over time reflecting a growing sense of crisis in the male individual the women appear more and more pathological in their desire for Don Juan In contrast with early modern works where women fend for themselves in a positive manner the heroines of later Don Juan works actively prey on the individual male This book argues that these changes in approach to the female characters and in tandem the developing identity of the male protagonist suggest Don Juan as dischronic discourse rather than myth
