Critical Difference Essays In The Contemporary Rhetoric Of Reading:

The Critical Difference Barbara Johnson, 1985-03 Barbara Johnson investigates the significant and illuminating ways in which both literature and criticism are critically different from what they purport to be. Her subtle and provocative studies of Balzac, Mallarmé, Baudelaire, Apollinaire, Melville, Poe, Lacan, Austin, and Derrida take a refreshing new approach to the fundamental questions of meaning, interpretation, and the relationship between literature and criticism. In each of seven essays, a clear, precise, and detailed reading of the rhetoric of one of more literary or critical works reveals the text's fundamental discrepancies, ambiguities, and contradictions. If rhetoric is seen as language's capacity to differ from literal statement and if to differ can also mean to disagree, then the reading of the rhetoric of literature and theory here is an attempt to capture the logic of a text's own disagreement with itself. The Critical Difference Barbara Johnson, 1980

The Critical Difference: Essays in the Contemporary Rhetoric of Reading B. Johnson, 1985 Reading Frames in Modern Fiction Mary Anne Caws, 2014-07-14 Mary Ann Caws presents in detail an important feature of modern literary narrative: the setting apart of passages that stand out from the flow of the prose—larger than life scenes that seem to hold the essence of the work. Originally published in 1985, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. Close Reading and Its Alternatives Mun-Hou Lo, 2025-11-20 Close Reading and Its Alternatives provides an up-to-date and consolidated history of the literary and analytical technique and philosophy of close reading. It offers an essential guide to the features and genealogies of close reading and how it intersects with literary theories like feminist criticism, queer theory, cultural studies, digital humanities, game studies, and more. Divided into five parts, the book contains 21 influential essays on close reading and on alternative methods that have arisen in the past few decades. These primary texts are contextualized by and analyzed in six original and insightful introductions. These works combine to trace the invention of close reading around the time of New Criticism. The book then shows how close reading evolved when it is taken up by poststructuralist thought such as Marxism, deconstruction, and New Historicism. Turning to the twenty-first century, the volume explores the rise of the critiques of close reading that are distinguished by their attempts to offer alternative methods: distant reading, reparative reading, just and surface reading, and thin description, and too close reading. Close reading is inescapably central in the field of literary studies and beyond. This comprehensive resource will enhance understanding and enrich the reading experience of students and teachers of literature.
