Politics of Ethnic Cleansing Klejda Mulaj, 2008-02-22 This book sheds light on the causes and consequences of ethnic cleansing in the twentieth century Balkans with particular reference to the former Yugoslavia in the 1990s In providing a thorough and consistent analysis of large scale episodes of ethnic cleansing in modern Balkan history Politics of Ethnic Cleansing fills an important gap in existing conflict and peace studies literature Offering a top down interpretation of the expulsion of ethno national minorities as a means of state building the analysis rests on a fresh multidimensional approach which provides an eclectic discussion of nationalism politics and security This book establishes an agenda for policy making and future research by making specific proposals for clearing up the present ambiguities in international humanitarian law related to ethnic cleansing rethinking humanitarian intervention with a view to restoring the long term viability of the target states and repudiating the argument for forced homogenization as a conflict resolution strategy
