J. Arberry,S. Radhakrishnan,H. N. Spalding,F. W. Thomas,2022-07-30 In the belief that all the great religions have similarities that confirm and differences that enrich peoples spiritual outlook on the world the editors inaugurated a series which they hoped would bring out the essential tenets of religion in what they perceived to be an age of doubt The series was originally published in the 1950s and consisted of three kinds of books translations of imaginative devotional and philosophic works with an introduction or commentary reproductions of masterpieces of religious art and background books showing the environment in which this literature and art arose and developed The books overlap each other Both Eastern and Western religious art often illustrates a religious text and many of the books seek the common ground in their cultural view of religion or philosophy A Textbook of Historiography, 500 B.C. to A.D. 2000 E. Sreedharan,2004 This book traces the development of historiography from the days of Herodotus to those of postmodernism It covers the ancient medieval and the modern aspects of the subject and offers easy comprehension clear and precise guidance and immediate utility The author provides a balanced view of competing ideas and leads the reader into the vast arena of the subject Two thousand five hundred years of historiography including Indian historiography and the poststructuralist critique of history constitutes this clear analytical work Akbar's Religious Thought Emmy Wellesz,2021-11-29 Originally published in 1952 the first part of this book gives a portrait of Akbar 1542 1605 Emperor of India not as a War Lord and Empire Builder but as a man deeply absorbed in questions of the Spirit It follows him in his quest after the various religions professed in India and the doctrines of the Christian faith The text is illustrated by numerous reproductions of contemporary miniatures Their style which under Akbar s inspiring patronage resulted from the collaboration of Muslim and Hindu artists who became acquainted with European paintings reflects the universality of the Emperor s mind The second part of the book is concerned with the rise and development of this style Abul Fazl and Akbar Curuppumullagē Jinarājadāsa,1934 AKBAR'S RELIGIOUS THOUGHT REFLECTED IN MOGUL PAINTING Emmy Wellesz,1952 A Forgotten Vision Shuja Alhaq,1996 Akbar Muhammad Abdul Ghani,1972 Sources of the History of India: Assam.
