

Achebe's Portrayal of Africa and the African People

Words: 326 Study Level: College

Subject: Education

Comparing Achebe's portrayal of Africa and the African people with Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, it is possible to say that the main themes of these two works are different. Achebe describes Africans as people with their own culture and tradition, he speaks that being pagans in general, they managed to create the culture which they believe in. Their traditions are not barbarian, they revere religion, age, and women, they highly esteem marriage and children, they know the value of good and sin, and they are afraid of evil. In general, Achebe describes African people as rather clever and friendly with their history and traditions, who know what value is and honor their customs. So, Achebe's main idea is that Igbo are the deserving members of mankind and do not...
