Crisis Hermann Hesse, 1975 Biculturalism and Spanish in Contact Eva Núñez Méndez, 2018-09-07 Biculturalism and Spanish in Contact Sociolinguistic Case Studies provides an original and modern analysis of the field of language change and variation with a specific focus on Spanish as a language in contact This edited collection focuses on diachronic variationist approaches to the Spanish language in contact with other languages from a historical sociolinguistics perspective Topics covered include language planning and policies education biculturalism linguistic variation issues in the Spanish of the southwestern United States and other socio historical and anthropological aspects of the contact situation Books in Print Supplement , 1982 Paperbound Books In Print, Fall 1981 Bowker Editorial Staff, 1981-11 Writing for the Eyes in the Spanish Golden Age Frederick A. De Armas, 2004 Although the very notion of writing for the eyes was not new to the Spanish Golden Age its ubiquitous presence during this period calls for rethinking of the traditional separation between the visual and the verbal in studies of Iberian culture This collection of essays seeks to open up this complex interdisciplinary field of study by including essays on many aspects of visual writing in sixteenth and seventeenth century Spain Jacket Food Safety Law in China Francis Snyder, 2015-12-22 This book is the first major study of the making of transnational food safety law in China Francis Snyder shows how the 2008 melamine infant formula crisis led to China s first food safety law and new food safety standards substantial reforms in government policy and closer relations with international organisations He also identifies current and future challenges and makes recommendations for dealing with them Chinese food safety law today is influenced strongly by cross border factors While transnational regimes help to shape domestic decisions many institutions deeply embedded in Chinese society have played key roles in this transformation Francis Snyder emphasises that in finding its own path toward ensuring food safety China can both learn from and teach other countries In May 2017 this title has been awarded a Gourmand World Cookbook Award in Yantai Shandong Province China Best in the World in two categories Best Wine Law Book and Food Safety Institutions Handbook for the Historiography of Science Mauro L. Condé, Marlon Salomon, 2023-09-30 This book aims to perform a critical and broad assessment of the historiography of science produced from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century It presents its main authors concepts ideas conceptions and schools It also analyzes the historical circumstances of the rise of the discipline history of science and the relations of the historiography of science with related areas These chapters do not understand the historiography of science as a mere description or record of the history of science Instead they understand the historiography of science from the epistemological criteria and choices that guided the writing of the history of science in its different contexts In other words more than describing the record of the various possibilities of historiographical approaches to science the chapters carry out an epistemological reflection to assess the bases possibilities scope and limits of different historiographical conceptions authors and traditions that have established the writing of the history of science

This book can be conceived as a reference work not only for professional historians and philosophers but also for academics from different backgrounds who are initiating themselves in the universe of history and philosophy of science be they scientists from different fields or young researchers from different backgrounds who want to start studying the history and philosophy of science
