Critical Kitaj:

Critical Kitaj James Aulich, John Lynch, 2000 Kataj is a major figure on the post war international art scene His retrospective at the Tate in 1994 generated argument and discussion In over 30 years as a successful artist he has explored the relationship between the visual and the poetic taken references from high literature and popular culture represented heroic figures and struggled to develop an iconography of post Holocaust Jewish identity Dialogues with Degas Kathryn Brown, 2023-12-14 Dialogues with Degas demonstrates the ongoing relevance of Edgar Degas to 20th and 21st century ideas and art practices The first in depth examination of this major artist s impact on contemporary art this book explores how contemporary practitioners have used Degas s creativity as a springboard to engage imaginatively and critically with themes of colonialism gender race and class Individual chapters are devoted to dialogues between Degas s art and works produced by Frank Auerbach Cecily Brown Xinyi Cheng Ryan Gander Maggi Hambling Damien Hirst Howard Hodgkin Chantal Joffe Leon Kossoff R B Kitaj Juan Mu oz Paula Rego Jenny Saville Yinka Shonibare Cy Twombly and Rebecca Warren Through close analyses of selected paintings drawings prints and sculptures Kathryn Brown explores how Degas s technical and compositional experiments have been extended or challenged in innovative ways By experimenting with the materials and methods of existing works contemporary artists generate visual palimpsests that make new demands of the viewer and prompt a reconsideration of ideas that have informed histories of 19th century French art The book overturns familiar conceptions of influence by eschewing a genealogical approach and prioritizing instead the analysis of non linear encounters between artworks This encourages a new conception of the agency of visual artefacts and of the conversations they are capable of entertaining with each other While this study sheds new light on Degas s art and that of his interlocutors it also has methodological significance for the writing of art history Pictorial Narrative in the Nazi Period Deborah Schultz, Edward Timms, 2013-10-31 This book investigates creative responses to the Nazi period in the work of three artists Felix Nussbaum Charlotte Salomon and Arnold Daghani focusing on their use of pictorial narrative It analyses their contrasting aesthetic strategies and their innovative forms of artistic production In contrast with the autonomous modernist art object their works were explicitly linked with the historical conditions under which they were produced the pressures of persecution and exile Conditions in the slave labour camps and ghettos in the Ukraine which shaped the paintings and drawings of Daghani are contrasted with the experiences of exile in Belgium and France which inspired Nussbaum and Salomon In defiance of conventional artistic practice they produced word image combinations that can be read as narrative sequences incorporating specific references to political events While there has been a wealth of literary philosophical and historical studies relating to the Holocaust aesthetic debate has developed less extensively This is the first comparative study of three artists who are only belatedly achieving recognition and the recent reception of their work is evaluated By identifying the aesthetic principles and narrative strategies underlying their work the book reassesses their achievement in a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery

Epigonism and the Dynamic of Jewish Culture Shlomo Berger, Irene E. Zwiap, 2008 The articles collected in this volume were originally presented at a summer colloquium in Oxford in 2004 The epigone is generally believed to be an imitator deprived of an independent original talent He necessarily follows in someone else's footsteps a source of inspiration that can or indeed must be identified The epigone can operate only after a certain span of time during which he has studied his example and learned how to follow in his master's footsteps An epigone is always influenced be it consciously or unconsciously by another person or by the surrounding cultural climate The epigone is per definition second rate Furthermore it is believed that the epigonic product cannot have an independent value Its only value lies in demonstrating a condition in culture a spirit of the area a trend in the arts philosophy or any other human occupation Rather than continuing to view epigonism as a natural if regrettable part of the cultural process an inevitable secondary stage within the development of any corpus the essays in this volume approach the phenomenon from a perspective that is at once more neutral and more positive They do so not by rehabilitating the quality of the epigone's output but by redefining his role within the cultural process per se In each of these contributions epigones appear as the true carriers of in this case Jewish culture Rather than mere witnesses or at best historical mirrors of primary canonical cultural codes and modes they represent one of the dynamic forces within the development of a culture For the epigone is not merely imitating but also disseminating It is not the isolated peaks of the cultural panorama that the articles in this book seek to map out but the modest planes that allow us to travel the landscape in the first place

Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists Samantha Baskind, 2007 Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists presents over 80 19th and 20 century Jewish American artists ranging from the critically neglected Theresa Bernstein Ruth Gikow and Jennings Tofel to the well known Eva Hesse Roy Lichtenstein and Larry Rivers The subject matter of some of these artists may surprise readers Adolph Gottlieb designed and supervised the fabrication of a 35 foot wide four story high stained glass facade for a synagogue Louise Nevelson sculpted a Holocaust memorial and Philip Pearlstein painted a version of Moses with the Tablets of the Law early in his career Covering painters sculptors printmakers and photographers as well as artists who engage in newer forms of visual expression such as video conceptual and performance art the book is in part intended to stimulate further scholarship on these artists When appropriate entries reveal the influence of the Jewish American encounter on the artists work along with other factors such as gender and the immigrant experience In many cases the artists own words are employed to flesh out perspectives on their art as well as on their Jewish identity To that end the volume contains excerpts from recent interviews conducted by the author with some of the artists including Judy Chicago Audrey Flack Jack Levine and Sol LeWitt Illustrations accompanying each artist's entry some in color aid this invaluable look at Jewish American art
