Crocodile Fury:

A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense

Haunting in Chinese-Australian Writing Xiao Xiong, 2023-06-26 This book examines haunting in terms of trauma languaging and the supernatural in works by Chinese Australian writers born in Australia Mainland China Hong Kong Malaysia and Singapore It goes beyond the conventional focus on identity issues in the analysis of diasporic writing considering how the memory of past trauma is triggered by abusive systems of power in the present The author unpacks how trauma also brings past violence to haunt the present This book considers how different Chinese diasporic communities present a dynamic and multiple state through partial erasure between different Chinese subcultures and other cultures Showing the supernatural as a social and cultural product this book elucidates how haunting as the supernatural refers to the coexistence of and the competition between different cultures and powers It takes a wide ranging view of different diasporic communities under the banner Chinese a term that refers not only to Chinese nationals in terms of citizenship but also to the Chinese diaspora in terms of ancestry and Chinese culture more generally In analysing haunting in texts the author positions Chinese culture as in a constant state of flux It is relevant to literary scholars and students with interests in Australian literature Chinese and Southeast Asian migration writing and those with an interest in the Gothic and postcolonial traditions

Women, Subalterns, and Ecologies in South and Southeast Asian Women's Fiction Chitra Sankaran, 2021-11-01 In recent decades East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis as they affect these two regions have been overlooked Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women s relationships to human and nonhuman worlds

Contemporary Women's Gothic Fiction Gina Wisker, 2016-11-04 This book revives and revitalises the literary Gothic in the hands of contemporary women writers It makes a scholarly lively and convincing case that the Gothic makes horror respectable and establishes contemporary women s Gothic fictions in and against traditional Gothic The book provides new engaging perspectives on established contemporary women Gothic writers with a particular focus on Angela Carter Margaret

Atwood and Toni Morrison It explores how the Gothic is malleable in their hands and is used to demythologise oppressions based on difference in gender and ethnicity The study presents new Gothic work and new nuances critiques of dangerous complacency and radical questionings of what is safe and conformist in works as diverse as Twilight Stephenie Meyer and A Girl Walks Home Alone Ana Lily Amirpur as well as by Anne Rice and Poppy Brite It also introduces and critically explores postcolonial vampire and neohistorical Gothic and women s ghost stories The Crocodile Fury Beth Yahp,1993 Hecate ,2001 Petals of Hibiscus ,2003 Southerly ,1993 Vols for 1939 1944 include the Annual report of the Australian English Association v for 1945 1946 include the Annual report of the Sydney Branch of the English Association American Journal of Chinese Studies ,1999 Westerly ,1999 London Society James Hogg,Florence Marryat,1882 The Windsor Magazine ,1922 Horror Fiction Gina Wisker,2005 This is an undergraduate student guide to this popular literary genre accompanied by tips and further reading lists for successful study All the big names in the genre are included from Bram Stoker to Stephen King Bastard Moon Wenche Ommundsen,2001 Australian Love Stories Kerry Goldsworthy,1996 Most Australian love stories confront or subvert the happy ending stereotype or the tragic lovers myth Distance hardship and the particulars of history have all played a role in this transformation of gender roles and desire Goldsworthy here draws together canonical authors successive generations of urban sophisticates and younger contemporary writers in this chronological anthology on romantic sexual love About Face Alison Broinowski,2003 This study explores how Australia appears to people from to Asian societies with the most significant interactions with Australia The surveys concentrate on people whose views are on the public record in various media who significantly reflect opinion in their society and who can therefore be taken to be both influential and to some extent representative The results of this comprehensive survey which suggest Australia has an image problem in the region are detailed Malaysia, Singapore & Brunei Charles de Ledesma,Mark Lewis,Pauline Savage,1997 With a booming economy Malaysia is a country in rapid growth mode This guide covers all the developments from its futuristic flagship city Kuala Lumpur to its most luxurious resorts and remotest villages This second edition updates everything from bars clubs and karaoke to its contemporary coverage of the recent Singapore elections color maps and photos Southeast Asia Collection National Library (Singapore),1991 Researching the Fragments Carolyn Brewer,Anne-Marie Medcalf,2000 Writing Asia Li Sui Gwee,2009
