The Dreamer Eric Craig Overton, 2016-08-29 The Dreamer Trilogy Series is based on five different styles of writing Being a new author I wanted to test my writing abilities by creating five creative stories Most important is to give the readers something outside the box Characters are fictional but each book has its deeper than life written message The Dreamer is the first book of The Dreamer Trilogy Series In the book called The Dreamer a teenager is able to transfer into the flesh of any human being he desires but the consequence is greater than the gift This is one dream the world will never awake from until the nightmares become reality Mystery spirituality is written in the ink of a gift and a curse American Made is on street life and growing up in poor conditions of the ghettos where making fatal decisions can end your life quicker than the eye can blink or will determine how long this youth will live under the blue skies by being the product that is American made The Mirror begins with a thriller gore and suspense written in the darkest form of life Bloody Mary reveals the untold truth behind the bloodstained glass made alive by a reflected soul made weary only to seek endless revenge The Dead Girl short story is based on the forgotten missing and lost girls walking the streets at night as the human vultures fly above their heads ready to pluck their souls to death under nakedness but not so pure to bewildered dead girls in the hands of a psychopathic killer with his own underground prison Some things are worse than death when the steel doors close from the world The last and final short story is based on slavery but reversed The blacks are the slave masters and the Caucasians are the white slaves Two best friends will have to endure mental and physical ordeal during slavery by being human properties to black slavers but survival might not be an option for them After reading The Dreamer Trilogy Series readers will witness the birth of endless ink Each short story has its own meaning knowledge and definition about existence or nonexistence of worldly life Enter The Dreamer

Pararealities: The Nature of Our Fictions and How We Know Them Floyd Merrell, 1983-01-01 The objective of this study is to inquire from a broad epistemological view into the underlying nature of fictions and above all to discover how it is possible to create and process them In Chapter One I put forth four postulates in the form of thought experiments in Chapter Two I turn attention to make believe imaginary and dream worlds and how they can be conceived and perceived only with respect to the a real world Chapter Three includes a discussion of the affinities and differences between one's tacit knowledge of certain aspects of the number system in arithmetic an ordered series and the range of all possible fictional entities an unordered network In

Chapter Four I establish more precisely the relations between one's real world and one's fictional worlds in light of the conclusions from Chapter Three And in Chapter Five I attempt to construct a formal model with which to account for the construction of all possible fictional sentences
