Alan W. Cooper

Berlin Target:

Time on Target William R. Buster, 2015-01-13 William R. Buster born in Harrodsburg Kentucky knew a soldier's combat experience and left a first hand account of it. He graduated from West Point in 1939 just in time to serve through one of the most crucial periods in national and world history. His story includes accounts of the incredible expansion, arming and training of the US Army as well as his experience in the great conflict itself from North Africa and Sicily to the hedgerow country of Normandy, the Battle of the Bulge and on to Berlin. For his service he received the Silver Star with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Bronze Star, the Air Medal and the French Croix de Guerre.

Isaiah Berlin Robert A. Kocis, 2022-08 Isaiah Berlin a prominent public intellectual of the second half of the twentieth century is examined in historical context for the first time as a thinker deeply influenced by and deeply reactive against the British Idealists. Tales of Berlin in American Literature up to the 21st Century

Joshua Parker, 2016-03-17 Of all European cities Americans today are perhaps most curious about Berlin whose position in the American imagination is an essential component of nineteenth century postwar and contemporary transatlantic imagology. Over various periods Berlin has been a tenuous space for American claims to cultural heritage and to real geographic space in Europe symbolizing the ultimate evil and the power of redemption. This volume offers a comprehensive examination of the city's image in American literature from 1840 to the present. Tracing both a history of Berlin and of American culture through the ways the city has been narrated across three centuries by some 100 authors through 145 novels, short stories, plays and poems Tales of Berlin presents a composite landscape not only of the German capital but of shifting subtexts in American society which have contextualized its meaning for Americans in the past and continue to do so today.

St Kilda Blues Geoffrey McGeachin, 2021-07-07 Selected for State Library of Victoria's Summer Read Programme 2014-2015 Bookworld Top 10 Crime Thriller Books of 2014. This is a terrific read with great plot, twists, complex characters and a menacing atmosphere. Sarina Gale Books Publishing March 2014. It's 1967 the summer of love and in swinging Melbourne Detective Sergeant Charlie Berlin has been hauled out of exile in the Fraud Squad to investigate the disappearance of a teenage girl, the daughter of a powerful and politically connected property developer. As Berlin's inquiries uncover more missing girls he gets an uneasy feeling he may be dealing with the city's first serial killer. Berlin's investigation leads him through inner city discotheques, hip photographic studios, the emerging drug culture and into the seedy back streets of St Kilda. The investigation also brings up ghosts of Berlin's past as a bomber pilot and POW in Europe and disturbing memories of the casual murder of a young woman he witnessed on a snow covered road in Poland in the war's dying days. As in war some victories come at a terrible cost and Berlin will have to face an awful truth and endure an unimaginable loss before his investigation is over.
