Map Description:

This map illustrates the urban infrastructure and natural environment of a city. The central area is densely packed with buildings and roads, while the periphery features more open spaces and green areas. The map highlights the following key elements:

- Transportation: A comprehensive network of roads, including expressways (red) and secondary roads (yellow), as well as a metro system (purple).
- Natural Features: Numerous parks and green spaces (green) and water bodies (blue) are scattered throughout the city.
- Urban Layout: The map shows a grid-like street pattern in the central business district, transitioning to more irregular patterns in the surrounding areas.
