Brooker, Bertram, 1888-1955 Bertram Brooker, Accents & Art Ltd, 1979 Bertram Brooker Bertram Brooker, Douglas Duncan, 1979 Bertram Brooker Dennis Reid, Galerie nationale du Canada, 1979-01-01 Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F. Williamson, 1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981 Abstract Painting in Canada Roald Nasgaard, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, 2008 In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris Two decades later the Automatistes Canada's first truly independent avant garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York

Montreal's Plasticiens launched their own razor-edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction. In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg's post-painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting. The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty-first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada's young artists. A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery.

Bertram Brooker, 1979 The Forgotten Legend Shawn Henshall, 2020-11-02

For generations Canadian artists have made their mark on the world with countless individuals rising to fame on stage and screen and as frontrunners in the various arts inspiring and influencing all who come after them. One of these legends has been largely forgotten though his contribution to the arts have inspired the likes of Monty Python and Kids in the Hall and brought hope and laughter to troops serving their countries at home and overseas all the while pushing boundaries as a prolific artist, illustrator, author, and actor. This book tells the story of forgotten legend John Wilson Jack McLaren from his birth in Scotland to his early years in Canada becoming a soldier in WWI entertaining his comrades in arms on the stages of Europe his business career after the war his deep involvement with the Group of Seven his membership in Toronto's famed Arts Letters Club and his eventual retirement to the community of Benmiller near Goderich Ontario where he passed away in 1988. His is a story that deserves to be told and remembered.

Selling Themselves Russell Johnston, Russell Todd Johnston, Russell E Johnston, Jr., 2001-01-01

From its origins in the Victorian era as a marginal and somewhat shady enterprise the advertising trade in Canada changed radically after the turn of the century rising quickly to a position of influence and respectability. In this book Russell Johnston tells the story of the people who made it so. Johnston's setting is the dynamic intersection of business and culture during the early decades of the twentieth century. During this period he argues magazines and newspapers grew increasingly dependent on sales of advertising space and this precipitated a widespread restructuring of the publishing industry. Ultimately this affected the range and content of Canadian periodicals setting the parameters for a newly invigorated though still fragile Canadian magazine industry. Johnston charts this process by exploring the lives, goals, and ideas of a new breed of solicitor, the ad agent, and shows how agencies began to draw on the disciplines of psychology and economics to promote their products thus initiating the modern market research industry. The only thorough analysis of the forces shaping advertising in Canada prior to 1930, this study documents the emergence in Canada of a key component of the modern culture of consumption.
