Advising Ministers:

Advising Ministers Brian C Smith, 2023-07-22 First published in 1969 Advising Ministers is a general account of the arrangements for advising Ministers based on a case study enabling the reader to judge the effectiveness of an advisory body in a particular case which itself gained much publicity and in which hopes were high that results would be achieved Mr Smith's conclusions are based on published material and informed shrewd deduction to provide a valuable addition to the all too meagre case study material on British administration This book will be of interest to students of history sociology economics and political science

Ministerial Advisors Role, Influence and Management OECD, 2011-11-24 This book reports on the results of an OECD survey on the work of ministerial advisors across 27 countries It considers why they are used how they are appointed concerns that have been raised about them and the transparency of their status

Special Advisors in the Thick of it Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Public Administration Select Committee, Bernard Jenkin, 2012-10-14 The Public Administration Select Committee says special advisers SpAds should be men and women of standing and experience with a legitimate and valuable function to play in government but they need better training and support to prevent future problems and misunderstandings about their role and conduct Ministers must recognise that they have responsibility not just accountability for the conduct of their special advisers and actively ensure that they are fully aware of what their advisers are doing in their name The Committee says that it remains concerned that this responsibility has proved to be more theoretical than actual and says it cannot recall any minister ever resigning over the conduct of a special adviser despite some astonishing cases PASC says that the special advisers role protects the impartiality of the Civil Service by performing tasks which it would be inappropriate for permanent impartial officials to perform and helping to ensure that the Government's policy objectives are delivered but that ministers must be able to justify that the tasks they undertake are in the public interest Despite concerns raised by PASC's predecessor Committee more than ten years ago the training and support for new special advisers remains inadequate The Committee makes a number of recommendations including that the PM's Adviser on Ministers' Interests should be empowered to instigate his own investigations of potential breaches of the Ministerial Code so that the Prime Minister is not able to protect his ministers from appropriate investigation of the conduct of their advisers and that the PM's Adviser should himself be independently appointed and subject to a pre appointment hearing

The Rise of Political Advisors in the Westminster System Yee-Fui Ng, 2018-04-17 Political advisors have risen in significance in Westminster countries and have been increasingly thrust into the limelight by headline scandals and through their characterisation in various television series This increased prominence has led to greater scrutiny of their role and influence This book demonstrates that the introduction of political advisors into the structure of the executive has led to the erosion of the Westminster doctrine of ministerial responsibility Adopting a comparative approach the book analyses the rise in the power and significance of political advisors in the Westminster jurisdictions of the United Kingdom Australia New Zealand and Canada It shows the fundamental shift of the locus of power from the neutral public service to highly political and partisan ministerial advisors Tracing the divergent paths for legal and political regulation of political advisors Yee Fui Ng illuminates the tensions that they pose within the Westminster system in terms of the media politics and faction opposition interfaces Providing insights for those researching or engaged in politics and public administration this work will interest scholars and students of politics and public law policy and administration The Outlook ,1926 The Place of Books in the Life We Live William Le Roy Stidger,1922 The Canadian Annual Review of Public Affairs ,1930 Homiletic Review ,1912 The Homiletic Review ,1912 Broken Bread from an Evangelist's Wallet Thomas Champness,1898 Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1912 Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1882 Sean Bhean Bhocht ,1897 Parliamentary Debates Victoria.
