the first of Dr Bowie's two terms as Music Department Chair at The University of North Florida he was afforded an opportunity to apply and distribute his long sought knowledge. The opportunity came in the form of a Million Dollar Endowment from the Koger Company to develop programs of study in American Music. The response of the faculty to the endowment was to institute two programs a Jazz Studies Program and a program in African American Music. The Jazz Studies Program has become nationally recognized for outstanding achievements in jazz theory history and performance. The latter program designed and developed by Bowie was called Encyclopedia of African American Music. Tammy L. Kernodle, Horace Maxile, Emmett G. Price III, 2010-12-17 African Americans historical roots are encapsulated in the lyrics melodies and rhythms of their music. In the 18th and 19th centuries African slaves longing for emancipation expressed their hopes and dreams through spirituals. Inspired by African civilization and culture as well as religion art literature and social issues this influential joyous tragic uplifting challenging and enduring music evolved into many diverse genres including jazz blues rock and roll soul swing and hip hop. Providing a lyrical history of our nation this groundbreaking encyclopedia the first of its kind showcases all facets of African American music including folk religious concert and popular styles.
