Sampson Low, 1898 Volumes for 1898-1968 include a directory of publishers Rethinking Translation Lawrence Venuti, 2018-10-25 Originally published in 1992 Rethinking Translation makes the translator's activity more visible by using critical theory. It examines the selection of the foreign text and the implementation of translation strategies, the reception of the translated text, and the theories of translation offered by philosophers, critics, and translators themselves. The book constitutes a rethinking that is both philosophical and political, taking into account social and ideological dimensions as well as questions of language and subjectivity. Covering a number of genres and national literatures, this collection of essays demonstrates the power wielded by translators in the formation of literary canons and cultural identities and recognises the appropriative and imperialist movements in every act of translation. "The" English Catalogue of Books, 1898 The Comics Journal, 1984 Strange tales of peril and adventure Strange tales, 1900 Routledge Library Editions: Translation Various Authors, 2021-02-25 The volumes in this set, originally published between 1991 and 1993, draw together research by leading academics in the area of translation and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues. The volume examines the concepts of translation as social action, socio-cultural translation, translation theory, gender, and psychology in translation. This set will be of particular interest to students and practitioners of linguistics and literature and those working as translators. The academy, 1880
