Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1907 Narrating Friendship and the British Novel, 1760-1830 Katrin Berndt, 2016-10-14 Friendship has always been a universal category of human relationships and an influential motif in literature but it is rarely discussed as a theme in its own right In her study of how friendship gives direction and shape to new ideas and novel strategies of plot character formation and style in the British novel from the 1760s to the 1830s Katrin Berndt argues that friendship functions as a literary expression of philosophical values in a genre that explores the psychology and the interactions of the individual in modern society In the literary historical period in which the novel became established as a modern genre friend characters were omnipresent reflecting enlightenment philosophy s definition of friendship as a bond that civilized public and private interactions and was considered essential for the attainment of happiness Berndt s analyses of genre defining novels by Frances Brooke Mary Shelley Sarah Scott Helen Maria Williams Charlotte Lennox Walter Scott Jane Austen and Maria Edgeworth show that the significance of friendship and the increasing variety of novelistic forms and topics represent an overlooked dynamic in the novel s literary history Contributing to our understanding of the complex interplay of philosophical socio cultural and literary discourses that shaped British fiction in the later Hanoverian decades Berndt s book demonstrates that novels have conceived the modern individual not in opposition to but in interaction with society continuing Enlightenment debates about how to share the lives and the experiences of others Current Literature ,1928 The Academy and Literature ,1899
