

Arguments FOR Affirmative Action

- There are reasons: socially, politically, economically, culturally.
- Socially: it helps to facilitate, almost mandating equality among classes, races, genders.
- Politically: might help change the fact that we still have white, male presidents, and other high offices.
- Economically: allows underprivileged to have opportunities in jobs and education that they otherwise would not be able to due to their circumstances. By getting more people educated, we have more people in jobs, and therefore a more productive society. Not having to take care through welfare and other governmental assistance.
- Culturally: it teaches that races, genders, etc. are equal. So that our culture can start to change its paradigm: where white, upper class individuals don't run everything.
