Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association, 1929 Age of Betrayal Jack Beatty, 2008-04-08 Age of Betrayal is a brilliant reconsideration of America's first Gilded Age when war-born dreams of freedom and democracy died of their impossibility. Focusing on the alliance between government and railroads forged by bribes and campaign contributions, Jack Beatty details the corruption of American political culture that in the words of Rutherford B. Hayes transformed a government of the people by the people and for the people into a government by the corporations of the corporations and for the corporations. A passionate, gripping, scandalous, and sorrowing history of the triumph of wealth over commonwealth. The Geography of Genocide Allan D. Cooper, 2008-10-10 The Geography of Genocide offers a unique analysis of over sixty genocides in world history, explaining why genocides only occur in territorial interiors and never originate from cosmopolitan urban centers. This study explores why genocides tend to result from emasculating political defeats experienced by perpetrator groups and examines whether such extreme political violence is the product of a masculine identity crisis. Author Allan D. Cooper notes that genocides are most often organized and implemented by individuals who have experienced traumatic childhood events involving the abandonment or abuse by their father. Although genocides target religious groups, nations, races, or ethnic groups, these identity structures are rarely at the heart of the war crimes that ensue. Cooper integrates research derived from the study of serial killing and rape to show certain commonalities with the phenomenon of genocide. The Geography of Genocide presents various strategies for responding to genocide and introduces Cooper's groundbreaking alternatives for ultimately inhibiting the occurrence of genocide.

Theodore Roosevelt and the Art of American Power William R. Nester, 2019-02-28 Theodore Roosevelt is an American icon, his face carved in granite alongside those of Washington, Jefferson, and Lincoln on Mt. Rushmore. He is the only American awarded both the Medal of Honor and Nobel Peace Prize. As president, he pushed through a stubborn Congress to break up corporate monopolies, strangle the economy, impose health standards on the food and drug industries, and conserve America's natural heritage, including the Grand Canyon and Redwood forest. He was a brilliant diplomat who ended a war between Japan and Russia and prevented a war between Germany and France. He engineered independence for the province of Panama from Columbia, then signed a treaty with the new country that entitled the United States to build, run, and defend a Panama canal. He crusaded for progressive reforms as a New York assemblyman, U.S. civil service commissioner, New York City police commissioner, and New York governor. He led scientific expeditions across East Africa's savanna and Brazil's rainforest. During the war with Spain, he raised a cavalry regiment and led his Rough Riders to a decisive victory at San Juan Heights. As a Dakota rancher during the frontier's twilight, he squared off with outlaws and renegade Indians. He was a prolific writer, authoring 38 books and hundreds of essays. Roosevelt was among the most charismatic presidents. Yet although most Americans adored him, most Wall Street moguls and political bosses hated him for his reforms. He was complex.

simultaneously peacemaker and warmonger progressive and conservative Machiavellian and Kantian avid hunter and nature lover Roosevelt accomplished all that he did because he mastered the art of American power His motto speak softly and carry a big stick exemplified how he asserted power to defend or enhance American interests Time after time he bested such titans as J P Morgan or Kaiser Wilhelm at the game of power Although he is the subject of dozens of books this is the first to comprehensively explore just how Roosevelt understood massed and wielded power to pursue his vision for an America as the world's most prosperous just and influential nation The Mississippi Valley Historical Review, 1917 Includes articles and reviews covering all aspects of American history Formerly the Mississippi Valley Historical Review The Florida Historical Society Quarterly Florida Historical Society, 1928 Florida Historical Society Quarterly, 1926 Scientific Jefferson Revealed Martin Richard Clagett, 2009 Study of Thomas Jefferson as a scientist including the various branches of science he studied and to which he made lasting contributions Also examines how science shaped his views on the politics religion economics and social developments in his own country The Johns Hopkins University Circular Johns Hopkins University, 1895 Includes University catalogues President's report Financial report etc The American Historical Review John Franklin Jameson, Henry Eldridge Bourne, Robert Livingston Schuyler, 1916 American Historical Review is the oldest scholarly journal of history in the United States and the largest in the world Published by the American Historical Association it covers all areas of historical research Journal of the American Statistical Association American Statistical Association, 1929 A scientific and educational journal not only for professional statisticians but also for economists business executives research directors government officials university professors and others who are seriously interested in the application of statistical methods to practical problems in the development of more useful methods and in the improvement of basic statistical data The Inca Empire Thomas C.
