Pioneers of American Landscape Design Charles A. Birnbaum, Lisa E. Crowder, 1993 American Landscape Architect, 1929 Preserving Historic Landscapes, 1990 Place Making in International Practice of Landscape Architecture Yun Zhang, 2021-06-25 This book explores international practice in landscape architecture focusing on the provision of services from Australia to China during China's contemporary urbanization and Australian landscape architects' approaches to place. Landscape architectural practice requires planners and designers to have a deep understanding of local culture, site characteristics, craftsmanship, and even project procedures that are often intangible. How to acquire the above local knowledge has become a major challenge for international teams. Through the survey of the practice of Australian landscape practices in China and the case study of Li Lake planning and design project, this book reveals the process and difficulties of landscape planning and design as a transnational practice as well as its special value as a way of cross-cultural fertilization. This book is intended for students, practitioners, and researchers in the fields of landscape architecture and urban planning.

Fletcher Steele, Landscape Architect Robin S. Karson, 2003 For 60 years Fletcher Steele practiced landscape architecture as a fine art, designing nearly 700 gardens. Often brilliant, always original, Steele's work is considered by many as a link between 19th-century beaux arts formalism and modern landscape design.

Landscape Architecture, 1929 The Architectural Review, 1921 Shaping the American Landscape Charles A. Birnbaum, Stephanie Sue Foell, 2009 A generous selection of illustrations together with a list of surviving landscape sites accessible to the public brings both the subjects and their art to life.

A Genius for Place Robin Karson, 2013-08 In this lavishly illustrated volume Robin Karson explores the development of a distinctly American style of landscape design. Analyzing seven country places created by some of the most imaginative landscape practitioners of the era in the context of professional and cultural currents, Karson draws a richly comprehensive picture of the artistic achievements of the period. Striking contemporary black and white photographs by Carol Betsch and hundreds of drawings, plans, and period photographs further illuminate their histories.

American Landscape Architecture Philip Homer Elwood, 1924 Frederick Law Olmsted Charles Beveridge, 2005-09-20 A man of passionate vision and drive, Frederick Law Olmsted defined and named the profession of landscape architecture and designed America's most beloved parks and landscapes of the past century: New York's Central Park, Brooklyn's Prospect Park, the U.S. Capitol grounds, the Biltmore Estate, and many others. During a remarkable forty-year career that began in the mid-1800s, Olmsted created the first park systems, urban greenways, and planned suburban residential communities in this country. He was a pivotal figure in the movement to create and preserve natural parks such as Yosemite, Yellowstone, and Niagara Falls. He also contributed to the design of many academic campuses, including Stanford University in Palo Alto, California. Today there is a resurgence of interest in Olmsted's work and legacy in both the United States and Europe. This timely volume presents the breadth of Olmsted's work in beautiful color photographs.

by Paul Rocheleau and illuminates Olmsted's role as an indefatigable administrator and social reformer. Olmsted's career reflected a deep concern for fostering community and using the restorative effects of natural scenery to counteract the debilitating forces of the modern city. Wilderness by Design Ethan Carr, 1999-01-01 Carr delves into the planning and motivations of the people who wanted to preserve America's scenic geography. He demonstrates that by drawing on historical antecedents, landscape architects and planners carefully crafted each addition to maintain maximum picturesque wonder. Tracing the history of landscape park design from British gardens up through the city park designs of Frederick Law Olmsted, Carr places national park landscape architecture within a larger historical context. The American Architect, 1915
