American Library History A Comprehensive Guide To The Literature:

American Library History Donald G. Davis, John Mark Tucker, 1989 History of Libraries of the Western World Michael H. Harris, 1999-07-29 This edition of the History of Libraries in the Western World represents a substantial revision of the earlier edition taking into account the information revolution that has swept the West since 1945 and the political revolution that swept across Europe beginning in 1986 In addition recent scholarship has been incorporated throughout the text with special emphasis on the work centered around the new history of the book The bibliographies at the end of each of the twelve chapters have been thoroughly revised to reflect the very considerable new work on library and book history The Academic Library in the United States Mark L. McCallon, John Mark Tucker, 2022-10-10 This book advances the belief that the library more than any other cultural institution collects curates and distributes the results of human thought Essays broaden the debate about academic libraries beyond only professional circles promoting the library as a vital resource for the whole of higher education Topics range from library histories to explorations of changing media Essayists connect modern libraries to the remarkable dream of Alexandria s ancient library facilitating groundbreaking research in every imaginable field of human interest past present and future Academic librarians who are most familiar with historical traditions are best qualified to promote the library as an important aspect of teaching and learning as well as to develop resources that will enlighten future generations of readers The intellectual tools for compelling constructive conversation come from the narrative of the library in its many iterations from the largest research university to the smallest liberal arts or community college Journal of Education for Library and Information Science ,1990 New Guide to Reference Books Isadore Gilbert Mudge, American Library Association, 1923 Papers and Proceedings of the ...
