American Literary Naturalism A Divided Stream:

American Literary Naturalism, a Divided Stream Charles Child Walcott, 1956 American Literary Naturalism a Divided Stream was first published in 1956 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The literary concept of naturalism perpetually contradicts itself oscillating between the transcendental affirmation of human freedom and the demonstration of its nonexistence In this tension it gropes for forms that will satisfy both demands These contradictions and this divided stream Mr Walcott shows represent the central intellectual and social problem of the modern world where the confusions between materialism and religion are ubiquitous In tracing the development of naturalism in the novel the author provides a background with chapters on naturalistic theory and the theory and practice of Emile Zola He then traces the shifts in form through the worlds of Harold Frederic Hamlin Garland Stephen Crane Jack London Frank Norris Winston Churchill Theodore Dreiser Sherwood Anderson James T Farrell John Steinbeck Ernest Hemingway and John Dos Passes College English commented This is a book that will clarify some of the confusion that teachers and students face when they discover that naturalistic novels do not always follow naturalistic theory Writing in Prairie Schooner Ihab Hassan pointed out In speculating on the origins of naturalism in perceiving the inner contradictions of its spirit and the tensions of its form and in following its full and vital sweep as it allies itself now with impressionism now with expressionism Professor Walcott manages to throw new light on a major movement in American letters
