Breaking The News James Fallows, 1997-01-14 Why do Americans mistrust the news media It may be because show like The McLaughlin Group reduce participating journalists to so many shouting heads Or because increasingly the profession treats issues as complex as health care reform and foreign policy as exercises in political gamesmanship These are just a few of the arguments that have made Breaking the News so controversial and so widely acclaimed Drawing on his own experience as a National Book Award winning journalist and on the gaffes of colleagues from George Will to Cokie Roberts Fallows shows why the media have not only lost our respect but alienated us from our public life Important and lucid It moves smartly beyond the usual attacks on sensationalism and bias to the more profound problems in modern American journalism dead on Newsweek

News for All the People: The Epic Story of Race and the American Media Juan González, Joseph Torres, 2011-10-31 A landmark narrative history of American media that puts race at the center of the story Here is a new sweeping narrative history of American news media that puts race at the center of the story From the earliest colonial newspapers to the Internet age America's racial divisions have played a central role in the creation of the country's media system just as the media has contributed to and every so often combated racial oppression News for All the People reveals how racial segregation distorted the information Americans received from the mainstream media It unearths numerous examples of how publishers and broadcasters actually fomented racial violence and discrimination through their coverage And it chronicles the influence federal media policies exerted in such conflicts It depicts the struggle of Black Latino Asian and Native American journalists who fought to create a vibrant yet little known alternative democratic press and then beginning in the 1970s forced open the doors of the major media companies The writing is fast paced story driven and replete with memorable portraits of individual journalists and media executives both famous and obscure heroes and villains It weaves back and forth between the corporate and government leaders who built our segregated media system such as Herbert Hoover whose Federal Radio Commission eagerly awarded a license to a notorious Ku Klux Klan organization in the nation's capital and those who rebelled against that system like Pittsburgh Courier publisher Robert L Vann who led a remarkable national campaign to get the black face comedy Amos n Andy off the air Based on years of original archival research and up to the minute reporting and written by two veteran journalists and leading advocates for a more inclusive and democratic media system News for All the People should become the standard history of American media A Force for Good Rodger Streitmatter,2015-03-19 America's news media are relentlessly criticized as too negative sensationalistic profit oriented and biased not to mention unpatriotic and a miserable failure at reflecting the nation's diversity Rodger Streitmatter makes clear that although much of the criticism is deserved it obscures the fact that news outlets have also made and continue to make many positive contributions to the country's well being A Force for Good How the American News Media Have Propelled Positive Change offers a compelling account of the Fourth Estate's efforts to improve U S society Whether documenting the appalling conditions in mental institutions exposing financial shenanigans and sex abuse scandals or championing an obscure pill as a form of contraception Streitmatter argues print and broadcast journalists have propelled significant social topics onto the public agenda and helped build support for change This text draws on both historical and contemporary examples from a wide range of social contexts the result is a fascinating tour of American history social change and the benefits of a robust media Advertising & Selling and the Advertising Agency ,1923 American Industries ,1920 Terrorism, Media, Society Tomasz Płudowski,2006 The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1914
