

ALFRED HUTTY

ARTICLE BY DUNCAN PHILLIPS

"AMERICAN ETCHERS"

A series of books designed to make Americans more cognizant of the valuable contributions to the art of etching made by living American artists. Each volume, complete in itself, describes and illustrates the work of an individual etcher. The article of appreciation and criticism in each volume is by a differant author. The twelve full-page aquatone reproductions of the artist's most important etchings are (in the words of the American Federation of Arts) "so fine that they demonstrate the beauty and charm of the originals." Of equal importance is the catalogue of the artist's published plates, giving sizes, numbers in editions, etc. That we were correct in presupposing the need for these books is evident—they have been welcomed by admirers of the graphic arts, print and book collectors, museums, schools and libraries. They have been accorded the highest praise everywhere and purchased, not only for permanent possession and study but for presentation to discriminating friends. Charles Victor Knox writes, in the "Chicago Evening Post"—"As I have said on previous occasions, this series . . . can enter with equanimity into close association with the portfolios of the most exacting print collector or connoisseur."
