

Regional Pronunciation

- Regional pronunciation differences are more familiar to us than word differences, although it is harder to draw precise isoglosses for them.
- The New England accent is well known for dropping the /r/ sound, shared with speakers from the south of England.
- Residents of Boston maintained especially close ties to the important ports of southern England.
- Compared to other colonists, New Englanders received more exposure to changes in pronunciation that occurred in Britain during the eighteenth century.
- The mobility of Americans has been a major reason for the relatively uniform language that exists throughout much of the West.
