 The kitchen was a dark, cramped space with a single overhead light fixture. The cabinets were dark wood and the countertop was a solid, dark material. The overall appearance was dated and uninviting.

Materials and labor for this kitchen were chosen with care. The cabinets are made of plywood with a dark stain, and the countertop is a solid, dark material. The sink and stove are basic, functional models. The lighting is simple, with a single overhead fixture. The overall look is clean and efficient, with a focus on functionality and cost-effectiveness.
