Women's Literary Cultures in the Global Middle Ages Kathryn Loveridge, Liz Herbert McAvoy, Sue Niebrzydowski, Vicki Kay Price, 2023 Initiates a wider development of inquiries into women's literary cultures to move the reader beyond single geographical linguistic cultural and period boundaries Since the closing decades of the twentieth century medieval women's writing has been the subject of energetic conversation and debate This interest however has focused predominantly on western European writers working within the Christian tradition the Saxon visionaries Mechthild of Hackeborn Mechthild of Magdeburg Gertrude the Great for example and in England Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are cases in point While this present book acknowledges the huge importance of such writers to women's literary history it also argues that they should no longer be read solely within a local context Instead by putting them into conversation with other literary women and their cultures from wider geographical regions and global cultures women from eastern Europe and their books dramas and music the Welsh gwraig llwyn a pherth woman of bush and brake the Indian mystic Mirabai Japanese women writers from the Heian period women saints from across Christian Europe and those of eleventh century Islam or late medieval Ethiopia for instance much more is to be gained in terms of our understanding of the drivers behind and expressions of medieval women's literary activities in far broader contexts This volume considers the dialogue synergies contracts and resonances emerging from such new alignments and to help a wider multidirectional development of this enquiry into women's literary cultures

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Medieval Women's Writing in the Global Middle Ages Michelle M. Sauer, Diane Watt, Liz Herbert McAvoy, 2026-02-02 This is the first encyclopedia devoted exclusively to medieval women's writing globally Focusing on the thousand year period between 500 1500 this comprehensive reference work addresses a long standing gap in scholarship on women writers from this period It challenges current understandings of the literary tradition of women by incorporating early writers and texts that remain marginal and by expanding definitions of textual composition to include more collaborative and contextual activities This encyclopedia also presents women in the context of the global Middle Ages Entries extend beyond works written in England Scotland Ireland and Wales to include works by women from Europe Africa and Asia By locating medieval women's writing within its cultural social religious and political contexts The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Medieval Women's Writing in the Global Middle Ages will be an ideal entry point for students and researchers coming into the field and a valuable resource for established scholars
