to join a tour group in 2005 and was taken to visit a small orphanage in Battambang. The children were living in extreme poverty and Tara was determined to raise money to help them. Two years later, after fundraising in Australia, Tara returned to Battambang only to discover that the same children were in deep trouble. Her spontaneous response was to find them a new safe home. With a team of committed locals and support from friends, she established the Cambodian Children's Trust (CCT). With an instant family of fourteen children and three dogs, Tara had to learn a lot very fast. And along the way, she realised that many of the actions she took with good intentions were not at all what the children needed or indeed what any child needs. CCT now helps vulnerable children to escape poverty and be cared for within their families. In this compelling, poignant and funny memoir, Tara shares the many joys and the terrible lows of her journey thus far with honesty and passion. Written with co-writer Lynda Delacey, How Not to Start an Orphanage is a book that will keep you thinking long after you turn the final page.
