Despair And Personal Power In The Nuclear Age:

Despair and Personal Power in the Nuclear Age Joanna Macy, 1983 Psychology and Social Responsibility Sylvia Staub, Paula Green, 1992-06 This book brings together for the first time many of the leading writers and thinkers from the psychological and mental health fields. Contributors include Robert Jay Lifton, Joanna Macy, Roger Walsh and others. Yoga Journal, 1984-07 For more than 30 years Yoga Journal has been helping readers achieve the balance and well-being they seek in their everyday lives. With every issue Yoga Journal strives to inform and empower readers to make lifestyle choices that are healthy for their bodies and minds. We are dedicated to providing in-depth thoughtful editorial on topics such as yoga, food, nutrition, fitness, wellness, travel, and fashion and beauty. The America Syndrome Betsy Hartmann, 2017-05-23 Has apocalyptic thinking contributed to some of our nation's biggest problems: inequality, permanent war, and the despoiling of our natural resources? From the Puritans to the present, historian and public policy advocate Betsy Hartmann sheds light on a pervasive but until now invisible theme shaping the American mindset: apocalyptic thinking or the belief that the end of the world is nigh. Hartmann makes a compelling case that apocalyptic fears are deeply intertwined with the American ethos to our detriment. In The America Syndrome she seeks to reclaim human agency and in so doing revise the national narrative. By changing the way we think, we just might change the world. Coming Together in the Great Turning Aravinda Ananda, Molly Young Brown, Kurt A. Kuhwald, 2025-11-25 None of us are free until all of us are free: overcoming systemic oppression through transformative group work. The Work That Reconnects has helped countless individuals to move through denial and despair into meaningful collaborative action. This essential guide is ideal for those seeking to deepen this work by addressing systemic racism, injustice, and oppression. Rooted in the deceptively simple premise that none of us are free until all of us are free, Coming Together in the Great Turning represents a decade-long interrogation and expansion of the revolutionary practices of The Work That Reconnects. Powerful contributions from practitioners address the false split between environmental and social justice and identify the common roots of human rights abuses and ecological destruction. Explore how intersectional systems of oppression manifest in group settings and provide strategies for shifting these dynamics to interconnected systems of support. Demonstrate how to move beyond isms and identity politics toward true diversity, equity, inclusion, allyship, solidarity, collective liberation, and a Just Transition. Share powerful perspectives, teachings, exercises, and rituals drawn from the practical experience of facilitators worldwide. Offer specific guidance for creating safer spaces and expanding cultural competency through anti-oppressive and trauma-informed facilitation. This vital resource is required reading for facilitators and participants, change agents and activists, visionaries and anyone who feels pain for our world and is committed to catalyzing change for a just and thriving world. Ocean Country Liz Cunningham, 2015-09-08 Ocean Country is an adventure story, a call to action, and a poetic meditation on the state of the seas. But most importantly, it is the story of finding true hope in the midst of one of the greatest crises to face humankind: the rapidly degrading state of our environment After a near drowning accident in which she was temporarily paralyzed Liz Cunningham crisscrosses the globe in an effort to understand the threats to our dazzling but endangered oceans This intimate account charts her thrilling journey through unexpected encounters with conservationists fishermen sea nomads and scientists in the Mediterranean Sulawesi the Turks and Caicos Islands and Papua New Guinea The Peace Psychology Bulletin, 1992 Widening Circles Joanna Macy, 2007-04-01 The life story of one of the most revered environmental and spiritual leaders of our time In Widening Circles well known eco philosopher Buddhist scholar and deep ecology activist teacher Joanna Macy recounts her adventures of mind and spirit in the key social movements of her time Macy's autobiography reads like a novel as she relates her multi faceted life experiences and reflects on how her marriage and family life enriched her service to the world Macy's formative years with an abusive father and oppressed mother set her on an irrevocable path of self definition and independence A short lived stint with the CIA exposed Macy firsthand to the Cold War's darkest threats the construction of the hydrogen bomb and the building of the Berlin Wall With three children in tow Macy and her husband traveled with the Peace Corps to Africa India and Tibet where her encounter with the Dalai Lama and Buddhism led to Macy's life long embrace of the religion and a deep commitment to the peace and environmental movements Joanna Macy was one of those rare people who in the words of a Rilke poem could genuinely claim to live my life in widening circles that reach out across the world In this absorbing and sometimes thrilling memoir the unique synthesis of spiritualism and activism that defined Macy's contribution to the world are illuminated by the life events and experiences that paved her uncommon path
