Detour! Dorothy Childers Gravely, 2016-06-02 We can't argue with a Detour sign. Plan B is about to happen. Without warning, a sudden brain hemorrhage dictated that the course of my life must take a different turn. Such a traumatic health crisis would have been frightening without the constant presence of Christ and the support of a network of praying friends and family. But in the midst of this new experience, even with a fuzzy medicated mind, I could trace God's hand and felt that He was with me. Didn't He promise that He would never abandon us? The same power that carried me through is available to others who look for it. How I wanted to see that last child of mine get married. Pull up a chair and let me tell you how it all happened.

Endorsements: I thoroughly enjoyed reading my friend's new e-book so much that I read it all in one sitting. Dottie Gravely overcame the trauma of a massive stroke with brain hemorrhage about a year ago through God's grace and the strength of many believers' fervent prayers and has amazed us all by writing the story. I highly recommend it to my friends. Elizabeth Jan Aschliman: Detour is a wonderful story of family and faith, a story of the faithfulness and grace of God and one person's desire to see others experience that same grace. Dottie's life is filled with encouragement, faith, love for family and friends, and total devotion to Christ, and those attributes are evident in this book. Detour is sure to encourage and build your faith, and it testifies to God's unwavering faithfulness to us. Joe Francisco, Assoc. Pastor, The Capital Church, Garner, NC: Most people's lives are upended at some time or another by unexpected detours, and in most cases they are unexpected and unwelcomed, as in Dottie Gravely's case. In her book DETOUR, the reader will meet a woman whose family, friends, faith, and commitment to her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, have equipped her for such a time as this, though she didn't realize it when it happened. Every step of her journey since that fateful detour is a positive model for people everywhere whose lives are in crisis for whatever reason. In concluding her story, Dottie leaves the reader with words that are sure to inspire: "I daily seek His plan for the rest of my life on earth to finish building a Lasting Legacy." Gloria Tarver, author of Christian romance He Planted a Garden: Detour can best be summed up in the life and family of Dottie Gravely in the hymn by George Matheson quoted in the book O Love That Will Not Let Me Go. It is a great perspective on how an unanticipated health problem occurred and how Dottie and Allan, along with children, grandchildren, church, and those God brought back into her life, dealt with it. An outstanding example was a nurse He brought into her life at the right time. Dottie also shares great stories of a lot of people including a family who wanted to sleep on the floor next to their mom and wife Working together with the Gravelys in two evangelism outreach programs has been a great opportunity to be able to spend time with them to see their heart for others and the church and to win some to Christ I also feel that EE Evangelism Explosion is the best way not only to reach others but also to teach men women boys and girls how to disciple by teaching them to share their faith After all this is the command of the Commander and Chief and He never rescinded the order He told us to get busy and He will draw all men unto Himself We just have to GO and we are amazed and excited to find Him there working already He is definitely the One who leads us forward in this life to tell others about the greatest person Who ever lived and offers the greatest gift ever given and it is Free This is the great excitement in Acts that caused the Apostles and others to go around the world and risk their lives for Him Richard Habegger President HR Strategies Solutions located in Raleigh NC Detours Eric Bennett,2017-06-14 Gambit ,1974 A Guide to Screenwriting Success Stephen V.
