Blue Hour Carolyn Forché, 2004-03 Blue Hour is an elusive book because it is ever in pursuit of what the German poet Novalis called the lost presence beyond appearance The longest poem On Earth is a transcription of mind passing from life into death in the form of an abecedary modeled on ancient gnostic hymns Other poems in the book especially Nocturne and Blue Hour are lyric recoveries of the act of remembering though the objects of memory seem to us vivid and irretrievable the rage to summon and cling at once fierce and distracted The voice we hear in Blue Hour is a voice both very young and very old It belongs to someone who has seen everything and who strives imperfectly desperately to be equal to what she has seen The hunger to know is matched here by a desire to be new totally without cynicism open to the shocks of experience as if perpetually for the first time though unillusioned wise beyond any possible taint of a false or assumed innocence Robert Boyers

Still Blue Elizabeth Goldring, 2023 Still Blue collects Goldring s key work across the decades in poetry and images As a poet and visual artist who is legally blind Goldring explores different ways of seeing through the concision of poetic syntax through her innovative experiments with the scanning laser ophthalmoscope as an MIT researcher and through poems that consider vision its loss disability more broadly human mortality natural beauty and the poet s response to war The stunning visual images of the human retina offer bold statements of color montage and technological exploration

Great Blue Brendan Galvin, 1994-07-01

Blue Loop AJ White, 2025-09-15 Blue Loop is composed of poems about addiction and recovery using meditation as a lens through which memories of loss and harm might begin to be processed and accepted It seeks to prioritize and demonstrate dwelling with the self in the present moment avoiding the tendency to do what those in the recovery community call future tripping our innate strong desire to visit things not yet come to pass through the mode of anxious attachment In fact these poems are against attachment in the Buddhist sense accepting and appreciating the beneficial gifts of calm from loved ones and community of all kinds but in search of release from the need to rely on such connections completely Therefore often they are lonely poems Despite searching for connection the speaker remains most faithful to and finds grounding in the self The goal of Blue Loop is to provide potential strategies and modes of thought for readers navigating any form of recovery or in search of more balanced being

Blue Period in Seattle John W. Gorski, 2011-09-01 John Gorski's Blue Period in Seattle traffics in a play of atmosphere both meteorological and psychological These atmospheres evoke a kind of emotional synesthesia I get off the bus at 64th and Linden because the dark organ chords of alcohol laughter are playing out of tune Blue Period in Seattle dares us to partake of a fretted penumbral world haunted by muses who are alternately flushed from the rose pink immanence of the morning horizon and morbidly pale her pre Raphaelite face a lunar masque advancing out of the night It is not surprising that Gorski is drawn to the lives of the artists and to their progenitor muses These artists record their findings and in the process see what others tend to overlook Fascinated by artists in their old age and even decrepitude Gorski seems to be asking himself what the upshot of such a vocation finally turns out to be what in short are the wages of art Yet in other poems such as the The Five Year Old Sheriff Gorski's droll side reigns as the mood strikes All in all Blue Period in Seattle represents a particularly fertile moment in Gorski's oeuvre For those as yet unfamiliar with his work it's a great place to start Deborah Woodard author of Plato's Bad Horse

Blue Beat Syncopation Stanley Banks, 2002 In his title poem Stan Banks makes reference to Langston Hughes I like that Hughes would be one hundred years old this year Blue Beat Syncopation could be a tribute to him It's obvious one will find a little Langston DNA in this book This is not a crime but a link Banks writes like someone just back from the Crossroads Did he sell his soul to give us a collection of poems this good This book is filled with survival music The poems are like something Jacob Lawrence or Romare Bearden might have painted Banks is a poet who has his face in the right window I know many writers who have moved from the neighborhood and still try to call themselves blues people If the year was 1926 Countee Cullen would be shaking his head about this collection too Why is Banks so black and blue The poems in Blue Beat Syncopation were written during the last twenty five years Banks has seen it all Here is his montage of a people still not giving up on a dream E Ethelbert Miller Foreword
