

Mor och dotter i Berlin

I september 1991 fick prinsessan Victoria tillfälle att besöka sin mor på en resa till Berlin. Det blev ett verkligt råbrott för den unga kronprinsessan. För första gången fick hon känna på hur det är att representera Sverige i ett främmande land. På programmet stod bl a ett besök på den berömda Pergamonmuseet i stora delen av Berlin, ett program med historik över tyska kungariket Preussen i Potsdam och katedralen i Magdeburg. Victoria hade med sig Aram.

In September 1991 Princess Victoria accompanied her mother Silvia on a journey to Berlin which provided much interest, and it proved to be a valuable lesson to the girl too. For the first time she was able to represent what is to her an important Sweden in a foreign country. The programme included a visit to the famous Pergamon Museum in east Berlin, a walk in the grounds of Potsdam the town's history museum, dinner in Potsdam and a visit to the historical town of Magdeburg where Victoria had a concert.
