Developing Literacy Partnerships:

Developing Literacy Partnerships Anne Hammond, Anne Cloonan, Leanne Reynolds, 1999 The Early Years Literacy Program is designed as a resource for schools to plan for and implement a strategic and comprehensive approach to early literacy achievement This literacy program is based on the recognition that all students should succeed in literacy by the end of their third year of schooling Becoming Teammates Charlene Klassen Endrizzi, 2008 Describes a three phase plan for elementary level teachers to develop literacy partnerships with children s families Becoming Teammates Teachers and Families as Literacy Partners offers a bold new look at how teachers and families can work together to build family school relationships that value and respect each other s perspectives on literacy Featuring the voices of parents teachers graduate students and preservice teachers Charlene Klassen Endrizzi s book explores how families and educators can combine their resources to become essential teammates and partners in children s literacy development Endrizzi recognizes that family school partnerships are a complex undertaking and offers suggestions for three phases of implementation In Phase 1 teachers begin by extending to family members a variety of invitations to communicate via surveys ceremonies and celebrations thus building an awareness and understanding of the literacy learning that occurs both in school and at home Phase 2 explores how teachers can initiate a two way literacy conversation with families through dialogue journals curricular newsletters and literacy backpacks The final stage has teachers forging partnerships with parents at Family Literacy Gatherings during which they explain and demonstrate literacy beliefs and practices discover and appreciate the families funds of knowledge and acknowledge and nurture the emerging parent advocates Endrizzi challenges teachers to take an active role in developing partnerships by considering a myriad of ways to build bridges of understanding with their students first learning partners Developing Knowledge Communities through Partnerships for Literacy Chestin Auzenne-Curl, Cheryl J. Craig, 2021-09-20 Developing Knowledge Communities through Partnerships for Literacy explores the development of knowledge communities safe spaces on the educational landscape where research and professional development with literacy teachers and writers can unfurl Children's Literacy Development Patricia Ann Edwards, 2004 Written in an eloquent and practical style renown author and recognized national authority on family literacy Patricia Edwards has carefully selected skills strategies and examples of family involvement that will empower educators to successfully implement family involvement initiatives A timely publication on today s political climate with federal monies going into family literacy Edwards has deliberately and painstakingly chosen research based school tested ideas as the focus of this book Developing Partnerships with Families Through Children's Literature Elizabeth Lilly, Connie Green, 2004 This book blends information on contemporary families research on early literacy and practical strategies for sharing children s literature in classrooms homes and pre school settings Content is based on the belief that adult child interactions around story reading play a significant role in fostering and developing children s language and literacy skills

This role manifests itself differently according to the social cultural and linguistic environment of a child's home. The authors present a selection of children's books from all genres and an array of field-tested ideas for developing early literacy. Authentic voices of teachers, children, and family members illustrate vivid descriptions of successful teacher-family partnerships and literacy strategies that work. FEATURES: Extensive lists of children's books. Coded by age range for easy selection. Culturally diverse titles are incorporated that sensitively portray children with exceptionalities. Supplies readers with a wealth of choices in fiction, nonfiction, poetry, biography, and picture books, providing a starting point for building a personal library to share with their children and families. Significant coverage of family life, including respectful, positive treatment of diversity in traditions, style, and structure, embedded in discussions in every chapter. Gives readers practical suggestions for promoting reading in daily families. Includes daily routines, bedtime, playtime, preparing meals, as well as transitions such as the birth of a new child or a death in the family. A Literacy Partnership Cycle. Highlighted by numerous literacy strategies that promote family involvement. Gives readers a simple framework for engaging families in their children's early literacy development. Describes effective literacy practices for collaborating with families at home and at childcare centers and preschools. Teacher to Teacher and Family to Family features. Throughout the book. Illuminates text content through the unique experiences of preschool teachers, kindergarten teachers, and other childcare specialists. Address common concerns and challenges and offer practical suggestions shown to be effective in translating theory into practice. Internet Resources sections. Highlighted within chapters wherever appropriate. Refer students to Web sites relevant to early literacy. Family involvement, children's literature, and advocacy are ideal for in-class discussions, assignments, or self-study. AUTHOR BIOS: Elizabeth Lilly, Ph.D., is an associate professor of Early Childhood and Literacy Education at Berry College. Her professional experience includes more than 20 years as a preschool, primary, and elementary teacher and teacher educator. Dr. Lilly was closely involved in the development, implementation, and evaluation of Georgia's Pre-K program. She has conducted workshops for teachers and authored publications on early literacy, family involvement, and children's literature. Her research has focused recently on story reading in linguistically and culturally diverse families. Connie Green, Ph.D., is a professor in the Reading and Birth through Kindergarten programs at Appalachian State University. For 20 years, she has worked with both undergraduate and graduate teacher education programs and has conducted research on early reading and writing in both home and early childhood settings. A former kindergarten, elementary, and preschool teacher, she continues her work in early childhood settings. Her favorite times are spent sharing books and playing with her grandchildren and hiking in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains. Literacy Partnerships Work Marjorie Brese, Alberta Interdepartmental Literacy Policy Development Committee, Canada.
