HEALED ALREADY: IT IS FINISHED! Receiving What the Cross Has Completed! Gerard Assey,2026-01-28 What if healing is not something you are waiting for but something already finished For many believers healing feels distant something to pray for hope for or someday receive Yet on the cross Jesus spoke words that settled the issue forever It is finished Those words were not poetic They were final They declared that redemption was complete access was restored and healing was fully paid for Healed

Already It Is Finished invites readers to step out of striving and into rest by anchoring faith in what the Cross has already accomplished. This book offers no formulas, hype, or condemnation. It does not deny medical wisdom or shame those still believing. Instead, it gently grounds the reader in Scripture, helping believers move from hoping for healing to receiving from a finished work. Through biblical teaching, Old and New Testament revelation, real-life faith journeys, and practical declarations rooted in God's Word, this book answers life-shaping questions about healing, faith, and God's will. This is not a message of pressure but of rest. Not a demand to perform but an invitation to receive. Because healing is not future, it is finished.
