Comprehending Academic Lectures:

Academic Listening Strategies Julia Salehzadeh, 2011-11 Academic Listening Strategies offers strategies for understanding lectures and additional listening practice for students who are currently enrolled in a college or university. The exercises in this text together with the lectures and short talks on the accompanying DVDs will provide students with many opportunities to practice effective listening strategies. The DVDs include four entire lectures as well as several lecture segments and shorter informal talks. Also included are short audio selections of academic speech from the Michigan Corpus of Academic Spoken English MICASE. All selections demonstrate actual and authentic speech in university lectures. All in all more than 4 hours of listening material is offered on the three DVDs. The DVDs support the textbook Academic Listening Strategies 978 0 472 03096 5. The DVDs are also sold with the textbook 978 0 472 03144 3. DVD 1 Units 1 2 15 clips including one 34 minute lecture. DVD 2 Unit 3 4 clips including two lectures longer than 20 minutes and one nearly 15 minutes long. DVD 3 Additional Practice Unit 4 clips including one 50 minute lecture.

Comprehending Academic Lectures Ruetten, 1986-01-01 Testing Lecture Comprehension Through Listening-to-summarize Cloze Tasks Haiping Wang, 2017-09-06 This book explores the effectiveness of listen to summarize tasks as a tool to assess lecture comprehension ability. It especially focuses on listen to summarize tasks that represent listeners meaning building and the discourse construction of the lecture for listening assessment purposes. It discusses in depth the nature of lecture comprehension and introduces the approaches to assessing it. It also presents teachers and students perceptions of listen to summarize task demands and their respective implications. By observing interactions between test takers cognitive processes and the task itself the book explores the effectiveness of these tasks. It also examines the discrepancy in cognitive processes between different language competence levels in detail shedding light upon current research on lecture comprehension assessment and offering insights into listening comprehension instruction.

Comprehending academic lectures, 1986 Academic Listening John Flowerdew, 1994 A collection of original papers by researchers working in the field which comprehensively addresses the area of second language academic listening. This collection of original papers comprehensively addresses the area of second language academic listening. The papers are grouped under five broad headings. The first section provides an overview of research relevant to second language lecture comprehension. The second analyses aspects of the cognitive processes involved in listening comprehension. In the third section the object of the comprehension process is examined and in the fourth ethnographic approaches are explored by extending the concept of listening comprehension to place it in the wider context of the culture of learning. In the final section the theory of second language listening comprehension is related to practical pedagogic concerns. Each section is preceded by an accessible introduction and the book as a whole provides detailed coverage of important aspects of academic listening phenomena.
