Community Reconstruction After an Earthquake Ino Rossi, 1993-11-30 Rossi develops a theory of the roles of action social actor and structure sociopolitical resources cultural resources and economic resources in disaster studies using the data on community reconstruction after the 1980 earthquake in Southern Italy as a preliminary test of the theory The focus of the study is not the response during the emergency period which immediately followed the earthquake but the long term recovery and reconstruction of the 44 communities which were officially classified as the most heavily damaged Aspects of the post earthquake industrialization of the region are also considered since the physical reconstruction of the destroyed communities is inevitably connected with their socioeconomic development Rossi outlines and tests a new framework which permits prediction of the different speeds of community reconstruction and provides a dialectic theory of the interrelationship between structural and action principles of social action Faith Outside the Walls Ron D. Dempsey, 1997 Sociologist Ron Dempsey examines reasons why churches fail to draw the unchurched into their sanctuaries and offers suggestions as to what must be done in a drastically changed culture to disseminate faith outside the walls of the church

The Handbook of Political Behavior Samuel Long, 1981 Discusses well known areas of political behavior such as political participation psychology sociology mass communications public opinion and power structures along with lesser known areas government learning political anthropology and political business cycle Also analyzes Presidential behavior judicial behavior and interest groups
